CONVICTS IN PLOT TO BREAK JAIL

Hoped to Fight Way to Freedom With Guns of Overpowered Guards

Six Prisoners, Including Three Murderers Implicated in Plot

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 21.—A plot by which six prisoners at the state prison at Howard hoped to fight their way to freedom with the guns of overpowered guards, was interrupted today when the convicts, including three murderers, were sent to solitary confinement.

William Trent and James D. Mello, life term men; George J. Smith, serving 30 years for the slaying of an Olneyville grocer, Edward H. Mason, colored, and Thomas J. Allen, each serving 20 years for assaulting Deputies Colvin and Tillinghast, with intent to kill them in an effort to escape from a prison van, and Jean de Marquette, serving five years for burglary, are the prisoners implicated, according to Warden Charles S. Linseott.

The plot was to be carried out last Saturday or Sunday afternoon, while the men were having yard privilege, but a majority of the plotters felt it would be a bad time and after discussing the prospects decided to postpone the attempt until next Saturday afternoon or Sunday. An automobile, which according to Mason's story, had been promised to be standing outside the prison wall was not in place Saturday or Sunday.

JOHNSON LEADING IN NEBRASKA PRIMARY

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—Returns from 336 out of 1849 precincts received today showed that Senator Johnson led the field of candidates for republican presidential preference in yesterday's primary, the vote being:

Johnson, 12,002; Wood, 8741; Pershing, 5568; Ross, 481.

With the small number of precincts heard from, William Jennings Bryan is running sixth in a field of eight for delegate-at-large to the democratic national convention. He has displayed his greatest strength outside of Douglas county, where the large majority of the vote is still to be heard from.

For the democratic preference the vote for Senator Hitchcock ran as high as 4 to 1 over Robert Ross of Lexington. Early returns also showed Governor Samuel M. McKelvie, republican, to be leading his field, with Adam McMullen in second place. John H. Morehead, democratic candidate for governor, is leading his four opponents.

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—W. J. Bryan made further gains during the counting of the vote this morning, and while he remained in sixth place among the eight candidates for democratic delegates at large, he gained on the leaders. In 361 out of 1849 precincts the vote stood: Hitchcock, delegates, Neville 11,491; Shallenberg 11,003; Noble, 10,180; McNery, 8841; Bryan, Delegates Stephens 8612; Bryan, 8050; Berg, 7894; Thomas, 7557.

LOWELL MAY HAVE OVERALL BRIGADE

Lowell conductors and motormen are going to sign up with General Overall, whose march against the guerrilla forces of H.C.L. started recently in the south, gained strength in the west and now has reached the east for decisive battle.

At least this was the statement today of a member of the joint conference board of the carmen's union, which is now negotiating with the trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. relative to a new agreement covering wages and other conditions.

Local carmen, as well as those throughout the Eastern Massachusetts system, are seeking to have a clause inserted in the aforesaid agreement to permit the blue-uniformed forces to don their present garb—which retails at $35 and $38 a suit—and henceforth wear blue denim overalls, according to this official.

He believes, does the official aforesaid, that the carmen will have no difficulty in winning their point—and should this prove the case it will not be many moons before local conductors and motormen will appear in overalls and jumpers, instead of the regulation outfit of the present day.

This should make business very good for local laundries, as many members of the local carmen have not as yet embarked on the sea of matrimony, and will therefore be obliged to have the overall nicely laundered at least once a week.

And now that we are discussing overalls, perhaps a word of advice to these prospective wearers of the blue

GERMANY ASKS TREATY CHANGES

Seeks Modification of Military Clauses to Enable Her to Maintain Larger Force

Request Contained in Note Handed to French Foreign Office

PARIS, April 21.—Germany has asked the inter-allied conference at San Remo to increase from 100,000 to 200,000 men the standing army provided for Germany by the terms of the treaty of Versailles.

The request was contained in a note handed to the French foreign office last night with the demand that it be sent to the supreme council at San Remo.

The note set forth that an increased force was necessary for the maintenance of order in the interior and that

FOR PARKWAY ALONG THE MERRIMACK RIVER

Residents of Pawtucketville who have been waiting patiently for the past several months for some action on the part of the municipal council on their petition for an appropriation of $50,000 for the parkway along the Merrimack river, will be encouraged by the statement of Mayor Perry D. Thompson that he believes the council will take action on the matter early in May or as soon as the city has increased its distance from the debt limit.

However, Pawtucketville will not receive the entire $50,000 in a lump sum this year, the mayor says, and he believes his attitude reflects that of the council as a whole. There are too

MAY NOT REOPEN LOWELL-NASHUA LINE

There is a possibility that the Lowell-Nashua line of the local division of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. will not be re-opened this year and that Grezole's Corner beyond Mountain Road will be the end of the route for Ray State cars.

The line has been closed since early in the winter when a sequence of heavy storms buried the rails under a heavy blanket of ice and snow. With the coming of spring cars began to operate as far as Grezole's Corner, thus giving service to people living in that vicinity and who worked in Lowell or Collingsville.

The advisability of putting the entire line in operation now is being considered by the public trustees of the road and a decision is expected within a few days. It is understood that the company feels there is insufficient traffic beyond that corner to keep the route on a paying basis. Cars south-bound from Nashua finish their run about four miles the other side of Grezole's.

At the present time Lowell has electric car connections with New Hampshire only over the tracks of the Massachusetts-Northeastern via Pelham. These cars go through only four times a day at present, but will operate to Pelham every half hour and in Nashua every hour when the summer schedule is adopted.

The public trustees and the joint conference board of the local unions on the Eastern Massachusetts system are now holding daily conferences for the discussion of terms of another working agreement and wage scale. The agreement now in force expires on May 1.

It is understood that both sides are approaching the question in a conciliatory spirit and hope to be able to conclude their negotiations within a few days. When they have straightened out all points upon which they can agree, they will then turn over the other matters still at issue to a board of arbitration, composed of Philip G. Carleton, attorney for the company; James H. Vane, attorney for the carmen, and Hugh W. Ogden, the choice of the company and union representatives as the third member of a board.

TOUCH OF JAZZ Girl Secretaries in Overalls Create Sensation at Capitol

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The staid house office building was given a touch of jazz today by six young women secretaries who enrolled as the newest recruits in Representative Upshaw's overalls brigade.

Appearing in blue denim trousers, the bottoms of which were rolled well up above their high heeled pumps, the young women created something of a sensation and had a large following as they tripped gaily along the corridors. The drabness of the uniforms was relieved by multi-colored silk waists and silk stockings.

"It's a horrifying spectacle," chorused a dozen daughters of the American Revolution as their sight-seeing trip through the big office building was interrupted by the crowds following the young secretaries.

STRIKERS AGREE TO GO BACK

New York "Outlaws" Reach Agreement With Brotherhood Unions

Leave Case Now Before Labor Board in Hands of Regular Brotherhoods

WASHINGTON, April 21.—An agreement with the railroad brotherhood unions, under which the striking railroad workers in the metropolitan district of New York will return to work immediately was announced here today by Edward McHugh, spokesman for the strikers.

Mr. McHugh said he had abandoned the effort to have the case of the New York men taken up separately by the railroad labor board and that his committee would return to New York today leaving their case in the hands of the leaders of the regular brotherhoods.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Hearings on the general railroad wage controversy which failed of adjustment by

HOUSEHOLDERS AND PHYSICIANS WARNED

If there are any householders or physicians in Lowell who are failing to report communicable diseases coming to their attention, they are warned that they are violating a state law and are subject to punishment. In the case of physicians who fail to make proper reports to the board of health, they are liable to be called before the civil service authorities and if found guilty may be deprived of their license to practice in Massachusetts.

The foregoing warning has been sent to Agent Francis J. O'Hare of the local board of health by Eugene R. Kelley, state commissioner of public health. It is pointed out that the prevention and controlling of infectious diseases are being interfered with by the lack of proper reports. The letter (full follows):

Success in public health work demands that special attention be paid to the control and prevention of communicable diseases and the first step in this direction is the adequate and complete reporting of cases of such diseases. Massachusetts has made good progress in reporting communicable diseases, but there are still some physicians and householders who do not report cases of reportable diseases in their practice or in their household.

A review of this neglect of duty there are many serious infections arising from the undiagnosed or unreported cases because no isolation or quarantine has been established. In some communities the law requires physicians to report diseases dangerous to the public health is persistently ignored or very poorly complied with. While the law furnishes a basis for prosecution of such physicians, it is very seldom that legal procedures can be commenced with any fair prospect of obtaining sufficient evidence to secure conviction.

You are urged to send to this department the names of physicians in your community who persistently neglect to report diseases declared to be dangerous to the public health occurring within their practice, together with evidence of such neglect. This information will then be laid before the division of registration of the department of civil service and registration, which department will grant to such physicians a hearing and opportunity to show cause why their license to practice medicine in this state should not be suspended.

Very truly yours,
EUGENE R. KELLEY,
Commissioner of Public Health.

TWO HURLED TO DEATH IN AUTO

Machine Dropped Over 20 Foot Embankment and Fell Into Saugus River

Former Service Men Perished When Speeding Machine Got Out of Control

LYNN, April 21.—P. L. Carlson of Westbrook, Me., and Louis A. Pomerleau of West Somerville, a chauffeur, were drowned in the Saugus river early today when their automobile, speeding along the Rogers beach boulevard, got out of control at a curve and plunged down a 20-foot embankment. The car is owned by Lucien Hunt of Somerville, a retired business man who has been staying several days in Westbrook, where Pomerleau's parents live. It is supposed that Pomerleau, accompanied by Carlson, had started for Westbrook to bring his employer home when the accident occurred. Both Carlson and Pomerleau were former service men.

SAMUEL FUDIM BUYS GOWARD PROPERTY

A long stretch of business and dwelling house property on the south side of Middlesex street between Pearl and Garnet streets, has been purchased by Samuel Fudim from E. T. Goward at a price estimated at $33,000. The property includes three stores and two and one-half story dwelling houses. The new owner plans to modernize the buildings, it is said.

APPLICATIONS FOR LIQUOR LICENSES

Highteen more applications for liquor licenses had been properly filed and made out by local liquor men at the office of the Lowell license commission up to noon today. This makes a total of 63 applications on file at the office, in addition to many more which have not as yet been entirely filed out. Almost all of Lowell's former saloon keepers, dealers and hotel men have made application for a renewal of their licenses, acting under the belief that legislation will soon be passed making the sale of 2.75 per cent beer and light wines a legitimate proposition.

These 15 applications were as follows:

First class common victualler: Andrew J. Donohoe, 472-477 Gorham street and 5 South Highland street.

Anthony Izdan, 123 Fayette street.

First and second class common victualler: John P. Mahoney, Mary T. Mahoney and J. P. Mahoney and Co., 135-140 Gorham street and 3 Chambers street.

Thomas F. McCann, Mary F. McCann, T. F. McCann & Co., 12-14 Concord street.

William F. Riordan, Anna E. Riordan, W. F. Riordan & Co., 69 Dummer street.

John P. Hall, 159-193 Lakeview ave.

J. Albert Allard, M. Frances Allard, Allard & Co., 45 Moody street and 112 Worthen street.

Second class as innholder (hotel): Henry W. Garrity, Hugh L. Garrity, H. W. Garrity & Co., Old Washington Tavern.

Fifth class, as dealer: Andrew F. Roach, Peter Roach, A. F. Roach & Co., 45 Bridge street.

DEATH LIST OF 155 REPORTED

Property Damage in Tornado-Swept District Will Run Into Millions

Hundreds of Injured in Need of Medical Attention—Many Live in Tents

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—Revised reports today from the tornado-stricken areas of Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee placed the number of fatalities resulting from yesterday's storm at 155, nine less than first reported today. The later reports told of hundreds injured and estimated the property damage at more than $20,000,000.

Need of Assistance

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—Assistance is urgently needed for the relief of tornado survivors in a dozen counties of Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee, reports today from the storm-swept district indicated. The tornado has taken rank as one of the most disastrous and most widespread in the annals of the south.

American Steamer Wayhut Sinking

LONDON, April 21.—A report to the Lloyd Shipping Agency today says the American steamer Wayhut is sinking in latitude 47; degrees north, longitude 7 degrees west. A tug is on the way to the assistance of the distressed vessel.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The steamer Wayhut is a wooden vessel of 2551 tons gross owned by the shipping board and under operation of the Mallory Line in trade between Belgium, France and Gibraltar. She carries a crew of about 30 men, and was built in 1918. The last report received here of the steamer was when she left Huelva April 17 for Antwerp with a cargo of ore. The position given by the steamer is approximately 150 miles southwest of Brest.

FOR OUTDOOR DANCE PAVILION

Chamber of Commerce Park Committee Considers Its Cost and Advantages

Situated on South Common, It Would Become Recreation Centre, Is Belief

Believing that an outdoor dance pavilion could be made a tremendous success in Lowell and with a situation upon the South common, also could easily assume the form of a community pleasure spot, the chamber of commerce committee on parks, recreation and playgrounds last evening discussed the question from many angles and decided to invite George T. Parker, superintendent of parks of Hartford, Conn., to come to the city to address a special members assembly on this and other closely allied subjects. Mr. Parker will be asked to tell of the success of a huge outdoor dance hall in Hartford, operated under the strictest supervision and with every possible protection from the park board and city police. At the same meeting, it is hoped Dr. A. B. Winship of Boston, widely known as an educator will be a speaker.

The chamber of commerce committee feels that if the public fully realized and comprehended the real nature of such a dance pavilion there would be a unanimous approval of it. The committee has picked out the South common as the most likely spot, should such a hall be built. It points out

CONGESTION HAS BEEN ELIMINATED

Traffic congestion in Prescott street has been practically eliminated in the past 10 days, according to Supt. Welch of the police department, who declared today that he has every reason to believe that the ability of property owners in the street will make no further efforts towards making the thoroughfare a one-way street.

Plain clothes men, as well as other policemen, have insisted upon a strict observance of the non-stop regulations in Prescott street for the past 10 days, and the chief intends to see to it that these regulations are rigidly enforced in future.

This action was brought about through a suggestion made at a recent conference between the shutters and property owners in Prescott street and a special committee of the chamber of commerce when the proposition to make the thoroughfare a one-way street was thoroughly discussed. Supt. Welch stated then that it would be possible to relieve the congestion there by strict enforcement of the traffic regulations, and he believes that he has proved that this can be accomplished.

PLOT FOR RISINGS AGAINST BRITAIN

Reported Revolt Planned for Canada, Ireland, Egypt and India in June

New York Said to be Headquarters of Conspiracy—Investigation

LONDON, April 21.—Constantly reiterated reports that a plot, having as its purpose simultaneous uprisings in Egypt, Ireland, India and Canada in June, is being fomented in New York, have impressed British officials to the extent of setting on foot an investigation.

The officers entered upon their work of investigation yesterday with the idea, it was stated, that if such a plot was on foot those behind it were irresponsible agitators who would not be intrusted with funds collected in the United States for the "Irish Republic" and who are without organiza-

ing ability or other substantial backing.

The reports received here have gone so far as to say that Irish sympathizers have left the United States for Canada, Egypt and India to plan a revolt in those countries.

In this connection British officials have taken cognizance of a statement of a member of parliament that he can prove that a soviet committee has been set up in South Wales and is awaiting the time of the "great revolution," when it hopes to assume power.

Murdered in Dublin

DUBLIN, April 21.—Detective Inspector Dalton was shot and killed yesterday in Mount Joy street when he and another detective of the Metropolitan police were attacked by several armed men. The other detective escaped injury but a woman was wounded by a bullet. The assassins made their escape.

To Answer Geddes

WASHINGTON, April 21.—H. J. Rowland, secretary to President De Valera and a member of the parliament of the provisional Irish republic, issued a statement here yesterday on the Irish question in reply to views expressed by Sir Auckland Geddes.

"Sir Auckland Geddes," Mr. Rowland said, "expresses the view that the British government wants now to place fairly and squarely on the shoulders of Irishmen in Ireland the constitutional responsibility of finding for themselves within the framework of the British empire the solution of their political differences."

"Ireland refuses to take any position within the framework of the British empire. She feels as the American colonists felt that the right of a people to liberty is a self-evident truth."

"Sir Auckland Geddes, in suggesting that all other peoples stand aside in this controversy, assumes the right to speak for Ireland, as well as Great Britain. The Irish people have repudiated Britain. The only people in a position to speak for Ireland in America are those officially designated by the Irish parliament. The British ambassador assumes to present the Irish question to the American people as a domestic matter of Great Britain. The Irish question is an international question."

STREET IS DANGEROUS PLACE TO PLAY

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 21.—Declaring that parents are guilty of criminal negligence if they permit young children to run about the streets in their play, Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin has issued an appeal to children to observe four simple rules, designed to protect them from injury in automobile accidents.

The rules are:

1. Don't run into the street after a ball.
2. Don't hitch on autos, wagons or trolley cars.
3. Don't run into the street from behind wagons or autos.
4. Before crossing a street, look first to the left, then to the right.

"Investigation shows," Mr. Goodwin said today, "that lack of care in these four movements by children and young people is the most frequent cause of fatal accidents. But the primary cause is the lack of care on the part of parents in failing to warn their children against the ever-increasing dangers of the streets."

Registrar Goodwin's attention was forcibly drawn to the matter by the fact that he was compelled to consider yesterday three cases in which children ranging in age from 2 to 10 years were killed in automobile accidents. Investigation has disclosed the fact that in recent accidents 35 per cent. of the victims have been children, and the registrar is convinced that increasing automobile traffic, together with the spring activities and games of children are largely responsible for this surprising percentage.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

MONEY BORROWING BY MUNICIPALITIES

The city of Lowell and other Massachusetts municipalities will be unable to borrow further money for projects authorized by special legislation in which a specified rate of interest has been stipulated until the legislature passes an act wiping out the specified rates and allows cities to borrow at whatever rate they can secure money.

The change in the money market whereby interest rates have risen from 1 1/2 to 4% and in some cases 5 per cent. makes it impossible for city treasurers to borrow money at the old rates. These circumstances affect Lowell particularly as the $700,000 high school loan authorized in 1915 by the legislature specified that the money must be borrowed at 4 1/2 per cent. The city has already borrowed $300,000 of that amount at the old rate. However, when it comes time to borrow the other $400,000 a higher rate of interest will have to be paid and this cannot be done until the legislature authorizes it. The special high school loans authorized this year and last year are not affected because no rate of interest was specified by the legislature.

MARSHALL FOR FREE SPEECH AND PRESS

NEW YORK, April 21.—Vice President Marshall was applauded by members of the Associated Press at their annual meeting yesterday when he advocated freedom of speech and press as guaranteed by the constitution, but favored "soaking it to the fellow who causes trouble in the American republic by what he says."

"Panicky" Conditions in Japan

HONOLULU, April 21.—"Panicky" conditions reign in Japan, according to a cablegram from Tokio received today by Nippon Jiji, a Japanese language newspaper here. Deflation of currency and rapid decline of stocks and prices of commodities with imports in excess of exports has brought about an alarming situation, the message said. The textile industry has fallen off, the yarn markets are slumping, industrial plants are discharging employees by the hundreds, many smaller plants are closing down, while others are operating on part time, and business of all kinds is coming to a standstill.

CHURCH AS HOME FOR EX-CROWN PRINCE

AMSTERDAM, April 21.—Negotiations with the Reformed church at Wieringen for the purchase of a local presbytery "as a permanent residence for the former crown prince of Germany," have been begun by the Dutch government, according to the Wieringen correspondent of the Telegraaf.

ALL PASSENGERS ON SUSQUEHANNA SAFE

TRIESTE, April 20.—All passengers on the American steamer Susquehanna which went ashore yesterday on the Dalmatian coast near Pola, are safe, according to a message received here.

The Susquehanna is unloading about 400 tons of her cargo, it being believed that this will permit her to be floated.

The first big step toward mass production in England, has been taken with the organization of a $20,000,000 combine in the British motor industry.

EX-PREMIER CLEMENCEAU RETURNS TO PARIS

PARIS, April 21.—Former Premier Georges Clemenceau, who has been visiting Egypt for the past two months, arrived here today. He was alert and smiling, but avoided interviewers and would not be photographed.

He was met at the station by his brother Albert, his daughter, Madame Jacquemont, and his grandchildren. Many prominent men were present, among them being Captain Andre Tardieu, Louis Loucheur and Georges Leygues, members of M. Clemenceau's cabinet. With them he gaily discussed his trip and his illness, expressing his satisfaction in returning home. He left the station in an automobile, a large crowd cheering as he drove away.

COOLIDGE OPPOSES COAL SEIZURE

BOSTON, April 21.—The practice of coal carrying railroads of seizing coal in transit for their own use was criticized in a statement by Gov. Coolidge yesterday. He said he was seeking to fix some way of compelling the roads to store during the summer enough coal for their winter needs. "The New England roads," the governor said, "maintain great coal storage yards. The coal carrying roads, however, appear to find it more economical to seize coal destined for New England, thus saving dumping and loading charges. In some cases last winter they seized coal consigned to state charitable institutions with the result that some of them narrowly escaped freezing. Such seizures are entirely unlawful they have no more right to take coal consigned to other parties than they have to take a washing on the line."

MEMORIAL WINDOW DEDICATED

The new memorial window at St. Anne's church, presented by the late Mrs. Blanche Fay McGannon and Edward Larkin Fay in memory of their mother and sister, was formally dedicated at the service on Sunday morning by Rt. Rev. Samuel G. Babcock, suffragan bishop of the diocese of Massachusetts. The bishop also made mention of the 700 hymns with music that have been presented to the church in memory of Mrs. McGannon.

THIS SPRING TAKE

Head's Sarsaparilla—A Good Blood-Purifying Tonic Medicine

It is a medicine in which the people can and do have entire confidence as pure, clean and safe. All the claims made for it are justified by the testimony of the gratifying results attending its use in a multitude of cases of eczema, eczema or salt rheum, psoriasis, blood-poisoning, catarrh and rheumatism, and of loss of appetite, that tired feeling, and low or run-down conditions common in the spring. It is not adulterated; it is not misbranded, but honestly labelled. It originated in a physician's prescription and is recommended and used by many physicians today. It has a record of nearly 50 years of wonderful success. Head's Sarsaparilla "makes food taste good." Get it today. If you need a mild laxative or cathartic, take Head's Pills.—Adv.

CHARGES POLITICS ON SOLDIERS' BONUS

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Conflict between republicans and democrats on soldier relief legislation broke out in the house yesterday after Chairman Good of the appropriation committee had warned members that to put through a cash bonus would "bring down the wrath of 108,000,000 men, women and children."

"The greatest badge that the American soldier will wear," Representative Good declared, "will be the badge of sacrifice and not the badge of bonus."

The open fight over the legislation started when Representative Mondell of Wyoming, republican leader, in opposing "any wild enterprise costing many millions" charged that the democrats were attempting to foist an extravagant plan on the republican house for political reasons.

The statement of the republican leader brought a quick reply from Representative Gardner of Texas, the democratic whig, who attacked the republican sales tax plan for raising the needed revenue, declaring the republicans were planning "to place a tax on the backs and bellies of the people instead of taking it from the pockets of those best able to pay."

Another development in connection with bonus legislation was the calling by Representative Towner, Iowa, secretary of the republican caucus committee, of a party conference Thursday night to consider bonus legislation. His action was in response to a demand from two score republican members, who were said to be dissatisfied with the work of the house ways and means committee in framing the legislation.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Patriotic day exercises were held at the Spalding house yesterday afternoon under the auspices of Molly Varum chapter, D.A.R. Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, D.D., gave an interesting talk on the principles of good citizenship, and a cantata entitled "The Landing of the Pilgrims" was sung by a group of young ladies with Mrs. Percy Williams as soloist and Mrs. Karl Perham, organist.

Middlesex Chapter
Members of Old Middlesex chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, held their regular meeting at the Spalding house last evening. Rev. Wilson Waters, chaplain of the organization, read a paper on "Chelmsford Men at Lexington and Concord, April 19, 1775." Mr. George W. Putnam also entertained with the reading of a paper, "A Typical Yankee Soldier."

MAY BUILD ADDITION TO LOCAL ARMORY

A survey of the Lowell armory to determine the possibility of the erection of an addition to properly care for a battery of the 162nd Field Artillery to be recruited here, was made yesterday by Col. Frank S. Perkins, regimental commander. He was accompanied on his inspection tour by Capt. W. C. MacBrayne, who has been commissioned as commander of the Lowell unit.

There is a possibility that a tract of land in the rear of the armory, now owned by the Boston & Maine railroad, might be secured for an additional building. Just as soon as the battery is recruited, Col. Perkins will order 30 horses, guns and other material sent here to properly equip it. Capt. MacBrayne hopes to begin his recruiting campaign in about two weeks.

CLAN GRANT ENTERTAINS

"Twelve Old Maids" was the headliner at an entertainment given last evening in Post 120, G.A.R. hall by Clan Grant. Those who took part were Mrs. Jessie Caddell, Mrs. Margaret Stephens, Mrs. Margaret Reid, Miss Jessie Smith, Mrs. Agnes Trumbull, Mrs. Minnie Clark, Mrs. Margaret Needham, Miss Jennie MacLean, Mrs. Thomas Ross, Mrs. Jean Prescott, Mrs. Nell Walters, Mrs. Samuel Johnson, Miss Margaret Taylor, Mrs. Lizzie Sutherland and Mrs. Jennie Robinson.

Others who entertained with numbers, either vocal or instrumental, were Mrs. MacLeach, Miss White of Andover, Chief McGrath, Miss Edith Doole, John M. Brown, Mrs. Samuel Johnson, Miss Jennie MacLean, Mrs. John Reid, Peter Caddell, Mrs. Walters, Miss Taylor, Miss Jack, Miss Ritchie, John Cunningham, Miss Isabelle Caddell, Miss Florence Kydd, Chief Samuel Johnson and others. Members of Clan Johnstone of Andover and the ladies' auxiliary were the guests of the evening.

CHARTER FOR NEW LOWELL CONCERN

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 21.—A charter has been granted by the commissioner of corporations to the Victor Pigeon Garage, Inc., of Lowell, which is authorized to conduct a garage and deal in automobiles and auto accessories. The capital stock of the company is $5000, consisting of 50 shares of common stock of the par value of $100 each. Fifteen shares are paid in cash, 18 with machinery and merchandise, 15 with bills receivable, and 2 with services.

The officers and directors of the company are: Victor Pigeon of Lowell, who subscribes for 35 shares, president and treasurer; Oda Pigeon of Lowell, who subscribes for 15 shares, clerk; and Melvin G. Rogers of Tewksbury, who subscribes for two shares. HOYT.

GARAGE CHANGES HANDS

J. J. McDonald and J. Cousins of Boston have purchased the Aiken street garage, which was formerly owned by A. C. Blanchette. This garage is located in Aiken street near Lakeview avenue. It is 100 by 300 feet and capable of parking 60 cars.

The number of pensioners on Uncle Sam's pay list on June 30, 1919, was 624,427.

"I can use all three ovens and the broiler—at the same time"

"I've got roast in the coal oven, bread in that gas oven at the left, and now that I've lighted the broiler flame, this right-hand oven will be hot enough for my cake. I couldn't do all this baking with any other stove."

"You'd hardly believe such a small range could have so much oven space—6½ square feet without the racks, or 13 square feet with them. And from end to end my stove measures only forty-three inches!"

"THEN, in addition to the ovens, I can have nine kettles cooking all at once on the top, when I'm using both stoves—four on the coal griddles and five on the gas burners! Think how convenient that is when there's a big dinner to get—or at preserving time."

"Why, last summer I did an unbelievable amount of canning—all in one day—with this wonderful stove. While things that needed long cooking were simmering on the coal stove, I was canning the quickly cooked things on the gas."

"AND it's so nice to be able to use either stove separately. You know there's nothing like gas when you're in a hurry—and there are lots of times when a coal range, is so much better."

"I discover new advantages in this Victory Crawford every day—it's come to be one of my most treasured possessions. Wait till you get one in your kitchen. Nothing could persuade you to part with it. It's a wonder."

CUMMINGS TO PRESIDE

Will Also Deliver Keynote
Address at Democratic Convention

CHICAGO, April 21.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee yesterday was selected to preside as temporary chairman of the national convention at San Francisco, June 28, and deliver the keynote address which will enunciate the party policies in the forthcoming campaign.

The convention slate was formed at a luncheon at the Irons club, where the democratic chieftains listened to a speech in which their leader sounded what they said probably would be the main point of his "keynote address."

The republican party has lost its moral character, he declared, in launching a vigorous attack on the action of the majority in congress in defeating the peace treaty and League of Nations and particularly the methods by which control of the foreign relations committee was held by the republicans.

"The whole fight on the League of Nations dates back to a corrupt election in Michigan," he said, "and a convicted criminal is the thing upon which republican supremacy rests."

He was convinced that the people of the United States wanted the League of Nations. "The republican congress there," he said, "has debated the peace treaty for eight months and had failed to pass one constructive piece of legislation."

Turning to the war, he declared that "not chance but brains" won it and for this leadership he maintained the democratic party was entitled to credit.

Relations of democratic women to the party and their part in the direction of affairs would be decided by the San Francisco convention, the national executive committee decided today.

Today's session was said to be the first in which women have had representation on the national executive committee.

Plans for the convention virtually were completed yesterday with the selection of the temporary officers. Besides Mr. Cummings, these officers are:

E. G. Hoffman, national committee-man from Indiana, secretary; W. R. Hollister, Missouri, assistant secretary.

Objections to the San Francisco convention committee's arrangements and particularly to the size of the hall, were removed following the appearance before the committee on arrangements of Postmaster Charles Fay, chairman of the San Francisco committee and Isador B. Dockweiler, national committeeman from California, who explained the plans being made to handle the guests and the convention.

The executive committee and the committee on convention arrangements will meet at San Francisco early in June, it was decided.

Coincident with the general revival of industry in Belgium came a great increase in membership of trade unions there. From 120,714 in 1914 membership has risen to 613,500.

JAPAN DEMANDS CZECH TROOPS BE DISARMED

HARBIN, Manchuria, April 16 (By the Associated Press).—Japanese authorities in Manchuria have demanded that all Czech troops in this country be disarmed. This decision is a result of the recent clash between Czech and Japanese troops at Hallar, a village near the Siberian frontier.

Six trainloads of Czechs participated in the fighting, which resulted in 20 casualties in the Japanese ranks. The fight began over possession of a number of Russian prisoners who were being held by the Japanese, and it is said Chinese soldiers aided the Czechs in their endeavor to liberate the Russians. The Czechs used an armored car, which was captured by the Japanese, but the latter were forced to retreat before an attack of Chinese, who captured the Japanese barracks. During the melee the Russian prisoners escaped.

Residents of Hallar are fleeing to the city, fearing further trouble.

CHURCH SHEDS REPAIRED
As a result of a call for volunteer workers issued by the Unitarian Laymen's League of Billerica, the Unitarian sheds, which were damaged by the heavy snow in the course of the winter, were repaired Monday. The men gathered at the church in the forenoon and under the direction of Fred Stanley and T. Emory Smith tore down the most badly damaged sheds and repaired the others. During the noon hour dinner was served by the Ladies of the Alliance under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Jenkins, Mrs. Elmo D. MacCurdy and Mrs. Ellis E. Colgate. After dinner speeches were in order, those entertaining with remarks being Charles H. Eames, John A. Richardson and Dr. Charles E. Hosmer. The men returned to work later and in the course of the afternoon finished their task.

EDUCATIONAL CLUB MEETING
After the transaction of business routine at the regular meeting of the Educational club yesterday an interesting program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Gardner. An amusing story of an outing by the club last summer and a number of advertisements were read by Mrs. White.

"The Use and Abuse of the Telephone" was read by Mrs. Perham; poems were read by Mrs. Harlow. Future plans of the club were all outlined in an interesting prophecy read by Mrs. Hicker. Mrs. Corleu read a short story and Mrs. Gardner furnished comedy for the meeting by the reading of her paper. In a series of the old popular songs Mrs. Elizabeth Leggat was joined in chorus by all those present. A detailed account of the Rockefeller Foundation will be given at the meeting next Tuesday by Rev. Asa Reed Ditts.

HONOR MEMORY OF
LANGLEY AND WRIGHT
WASHINGTON, April 21.—Naming of two aircraft auxiliaries of the American navy in memory of Professor Samuel P. Langley and Wilbur Wright, in recognition of their pioneer work in the evolution of heavier-than-air craft, was announced today by the navy department.

The aircraft tender to be launched at the Hog Island yards next week has been named Wright and the name of the collier Jupiter, now being converted into an aeroplane carrier, has been changed to Langley, the announcement said. Orville Wright, brother of Wilbur Wright, has been asked to name the sponsor for the new tender.

WILL ORGANIZE
BOY SCOUT TROOP
For the purpose of organizing a Boy Scout troop a meeting of Centralville boys and young men will be held at the Centralville M. E. church this evening at 7 o'clock. Scout Executive Reid I. Ripley will make an address on scout work and will outline a program for the new troop.

The following committee, who will make arrangements for a lyceum lecture course, was elected at a business meeting of the Men's Brotherhood held in the church last evening: Rev. Karl P. Meister, pastor; Russell M. Fox and A. L. Hiser.

Of the total immigration over a period of several months, officials of the port of New York say, women and girls have formed not less than 60 per cent.

ANAEMIA

MRS. HENRI CHAPDELAINE

I was in such a weakened condition that I had no courage for anything, and the best part of my time was passed in resting, as I was always tired. This state of affairs was brought on by the fact that I had to start working at a very early age. My grandmother, who had used RED PILLS and had great confidence in them, made me take them for a while and they did me an immense amount of good. In fact, after taking them regularly I am now in the best of health, have a good complexion and am happy to be feeling so good.

PLANNING HOME SEWING

Members of the community club of Chelmsford who assembled in the town hall yesterday afternoon were instructed in the practical planning of home sewing by Miss Emerson of Malden, the advisor of the demonstrators of the Mid-dlesex county farm bureau. Mrs. W. K. Putney called the meeting to order and after a short preliminary business period Miss Emerson was introduced.

Before taking up the main subject Miss Emerson spoke of the institution of a sewing course at Amherst and gave a short talk regarding it. In her main demonstration she spoke of the practical planning of home sewing, the adjustment of patterns to fit the individual, the cutting out of the work and other details. At the next meeting on May 1 all these present were requested to have ready a dress, cut and basted to be used in an exercise in fitting. Miss Emerson will consider at that meeting the different ways of finishing and the so-called "thrifty" edges.

The average buying power of the American farmer has increased in the last four years from $1600 to $2400 a year, while that of the city man still remains approximately at $200 a year.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION CLASS BANQUETED

The Sacred Heart parish has for many years enjoyed an enviable reputation for the excellence of the many social functions held under the auspices of its parishioners, and a notable feature of the spirit which animated the members of each committee appointed to arrange for some new social activity is their earnest desire to make the success of each entertainment surpass that of its predecessor.

If such dreams inspired the members of the Sacred Heart Social club in their arrangements for last evening's banquet to the Massachusetts University Extension class, they were certainly realized. Everything that could be desired to lend attraction to the occasion had been minutely attended to. The spacious parochial school hall was tastefully decorated and presented a charming appearance. Rich streamers, representing the class colors, were suspended throughout the main hall, while the stage was hidden amid an array of choice plants which hung in bold relief the letters in gold, "H.N.C." On one side of the club's motto a large portrait of Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., the pastor of the church, was suspended, and on the other a striking portrait of the energetic spiritual director of the Holy Name club, Rev. William P. Mahan, O.M.I.

The Holy Name Social club, organized with a handful of members, but three short years ago, has from its very infancy played a prominent part in the many social functions of the Sacred Heart parish. Through the efforts of the spiritual director, Father Mahan, O.M.I., and the encouragement and co-operation of Father Flynn, O.M.I., and the fathers of the parish, an opportunity for educational advancement was presented, and in the success of the University Extension course, brought to a magnificent close last evening. When during the post-prandial exercises the members of the class were presented their diplomas, the dreams of those good fathers, who are ever anxious to promote the best interests of their parishioners, became a glorious reality.

At 8 o'clock 150 ladies and gentlemen sat down to an excellent turkey dinner served by Lydon, the caterer. More's orchestra rendered several selections that lent an atmosphere of warmth to the splendor of the scene. Mr. George O'Brien availed himself of an early opportunity to step forward, and in a neat speech on behalf of the members of the graduating class, he presented Mr. Foley a Knights of Columbus charm, as a slight token of appreciation from the class for the painstaking care he exercised in conducting the class throughout the winter months. Mr. Foley, though taken wholly by surprise, accepted the gift and in a few well chosen words, thanked the members of the class for their kindness. After the many good things on the menu had been done full justice to, Mr. Charles Foley, as toastmaster of the occasion, reviewed the work of the Massachusetts University Extension class, and complimented the members on their faithfulness to classes and ultimate excellent showing.

Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., upon being introduced by Toastmaster Foley, as "our beloved pastor," was given a hearty ovation. Fr. Flynn expressed the pleasure it gave him to be a participant in the exercises of the evening, and heartily congratulated Fr. Mahan, the spiritual director of the club; Mr. Dallas, of Boston, the head of class instruction of the state board of education, and Mr. Foley, instructor of the local class, for the magnificent success of the University Extension class in the Sacred Heart parish. It is possible, he said, that next fall, in addition to the men's classes, classes for ladies will also be formed, and with a growing interest and the co-operation of all, like the little acorn that grows into a large spreading tree, great progress may be reached, and great things accomplished toward the educational advancement of the members. Everything will be done, every opportunity afforded, to promote the success of those classes.

Extraordinary educational advantages are offered here under the guidance of the state, and one should not fail to take advantage of them. Mr. Dallas, of the state board of education was the next speaker. He said it gave him great pleasure to receive an invitation from Father Mahan to come and present the diplomas to the University Extension class of the Sacred Heart club. He expected tonight to find the members in a class room, and was very pleasantly surprised at the wonderful reception that had been planned for the occasion, and the beautiful repast which all present enjoyed.

Last winter there were 300 classes in the Massachusetts University Extension course, and of that number, embracing the entire state, the Sacred Heart class of Lowell, is the banner class. It holds the largest percentage for attendance meetings, as well as the largest percentage to continue to completion. In speaking of those classes we judge their merit by the success of the class, and in this you have certainly showed faithfulness. Mr. Foley visited the office in Boston last week with some of the class papers, and the clerks upon looking over the papers at once became enthusiastic, and remarked to Mr. Foley, whom they did not know, that the Lowell class must surely have had a good instructor. It is true, and while the clerks didn't know that 'twas Mr. Foley, who brought the papers, they couldn't refrain from favorable comment upon them. Last winter was a very hard, trying winter, but the Sacred Heart class seemed to be able to surmount even the weather difficulties, and so show such a wonderful record of achievement.

There is no personal credit due to me, continued Mr. Dallas, for the success of this class. It is my duty to arrange those classes when called upon, and to organize them if a sufficient number of students agree on the subject to be taken up, and arrange the necessary number of classes. When I first came to Lowell I was rather critical and somewhat severe in explaining what was required of the members of an extension class, and the reason was, when I talked in the club rooms, and saw around me so many forms of amusement to divert the mind from concentration to study, I was inclined to discourage the idea, as I feared it would be difficult to continue such a class of education to successful completion. I am glad tonight to see that you have dispelled all doubts as to the sincerity of your desire to advance along the course laid down by the promoters of those classes. The commonwealth of Massachusetts is expending large sums of money each year for the maintenance of those university extension classes, and it is a pleasure to see that the Holy Name Social club has been the first club of its kind in Lowell to take advantage of the opportunities for educational advancement thus presented. There is no reason why next year an advanced class in mathematics could not be formed, as well as a class similar in this year. Other courses along practical lines will speedily follow. There is no reason why the young ladies too should not take advantage of the opportunities offered in university extension classes. Especially is this applicable to young ladies working in business offices. To such a course in business English or commercial correspondence would be highly beneficial.

The governor has just signed a check for $165,000 to cover the expense of these classes as well as correspondence courses conducted under university extension supervision. If the demand for a ladies' class here materializes, such a class will be formed in the fall. These classes are not strictly confined to the young, the older people too may take advantage of them.

Mr. Dallas here cited interesting cases to show that men of mature age even have, through strict application to study, advanced themselves to leadership in business and the professions. The speaker again congratulated the members of the class upon their success, and expressed the hope that next year, not alone one, but two and perhaps three courses would be conducted by the Holy Name Social club.

Rev. William P. Mahan, O.M.I., upon being introduced as "the man who organized the class" was enthusiastically received.

He said he appreciated the warmth of the reception, and the kind introduction by the toastmaster. He was pleased to have a part in organizing the class, but to the pastor, Father Flynn, is due the credit for the success which the class has attained. Father Flynn is the man who stood behind the project from its organization, and lent his co-operation and hearty support to everything that was conducive to the success of the class. The announcement that the pastor will provide more commodious quarters in the old school for the classes next year will no doubt be received with pleasure by the members present. It is my wish, and the wish of your pastor that several classes be conducted next year, and so uphold the reputation we enjoy amongst our friends even outside of Lowell, which is, "that nothing in the city of Lowell can equal the Sacred Heart parish in the successful accomplishment of anything and everything it undertakes."

After a few select numbers by the orchestra, Mr. Fred Sharkey delighted with vocal selections.

Mr. Dallas then presented diplomas to the following members of the Massachusetts university extension class of the Sacred Heart Social club: John J. Ahern, Walter Brown, James Burns, John Conolly, William Connors, Lawrence Considine, Francis Donaghy, William Finnegan, Edward Finnegan, James Keenan, Herbert Kelly, Martin Kennedy, James Kane, James Kelleher, Frank Tannon, Stephen McNamara, Joseph McNamara, Joseph Miller, Joseph Garrity, John Healey, Harry Healon, Thomas Healey, Thomas Hartley, Frank Hearn, Paul Houline, Joseph Jennings, John McGowan, Martin McNally, Henry McFarland, George O'Brien, Arthur McLean, John Tully, Frank Ward, P. Alton Walsh. After the presentation of diplomas, the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" brought to a close one of the most enjoyable evenings yet held under the auspices of the Holy Name club.

For the excellence of last evening's program a meed of unstinted praise is due the members of the banquet committee, Messrs. James Keenan, P. A. Walsh, Thomas Healey and Rev. William P. Mahan, O.M.I.

FOR PEACE IN CHINA

Plan to Organize United Parliament in Shanghai—End of Canton Government

SHANGHAI, April 16. (By the Associated Press).—Dominant elements of the northern and southern Chinese governments will merge and organize a united parliament, probably in this city, in a short time, said Wu Ting Fang, administrative leader and minister of foreign affairs of the southern government, on arriving here today. A constitution and peace program will be drafted at the meeting, he said, thus terminating the Canton government, which, he declared, has ceased to function.

Sun Yat Sen, first president of the Chinese republic and leader of the constitutionalists, and Tang Shao Yi, former premier of the Peking government, are here, and 90 of the 300 members of the Canton parliament have arrived. Proxies held by the leaders of the delegation give them the voting power of a majority of the southern government's administrative council of seven, and they will carry out the projects which have been negotiated by Sun Yat Sen with Tuan Chi Jul and other Peking chiefs.

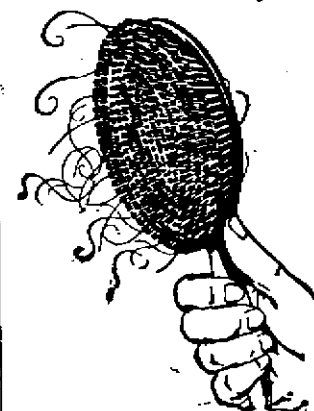

Wu Ting Fang favors the consortium in which Japan, the United States, France and Great Britain would play a dominant role in the financing of Chinese undertakings, but opposes loans now pending. He says he wants internal peace first, and then foreign supervision of expenditures. He sympathizes with the Chinese students who have been demonstrating against the loans to China, and declares problems arising from the disposition of the province of Shantung should be settled by the League of Nations.

Vigorous Opposition
SHANGHAI, March 17.—Vigorous opposition to all projects for further foreign loans to the present Peking government is being continued by the Shanghai branch of the National Students' union and the Shanghai Students' union, representing all the Chinese students and many of the educators of the Shanghai district.

Refusal of American, British and French banks to carry through the proposed loan of $25,000,000 to the government, has led the two organizations to address to the leading American, French and British banking houses in China messages expressing

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach and blood cannot be surpassed by any remedy today.

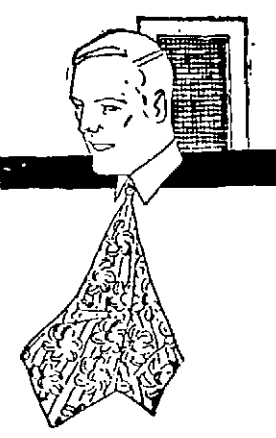

Every spring most people feel "all out of sorts"—their vitality is at a low ebb—the blood becomes surcharged with poisons!

The best spring medicine and tonic is called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts vim, vigor, vitality into the blood. Try it. This is what folks say about it:

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—"Some years ago I was completely tired-out, nervous, run-down and unable to perform my ordinary household duties. Both my father and brother had used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a spring tonic and blood purifier and they both urged me to try it. I bought a bottle and before I had finished it I felt like a new woman. I have been well and strong ever since. I have always spoken highly of it."—MRS. WILLIAM ELLSWORTH, 24 Pearne Street that there already is a band stand there and that the floor could be extended toward the Highland street slope. Hartford operates its dance hall every pleasant evening during the summer months, Sundays excepted, with a 40-piece band to provide the music.

For Outdoor Dance Pavilion

It is the tentative idea of the special committee now agitating the plan in Lowell that band music should also be used here. Not only would such music be excellent for dancing, but also, it would afford thousands of people an opportunity to hear splendid concerts each evening. The Summer street slope would make an admirable "balcony" and in this way the pavilion would not only provide enjoyment for dancers, but also would soon become a community recreational center.

It has been estimated that a pavilion of the size required would cost approximately $3000 to build and this seems out of the question this summer, but the committee hopes that public sentiment will so thoroughly endorse the plan that arrangements for it will be made in the park department budget of 1921.

The committee also heard several reports from Miss Emily Skilton last evening relative to land adjacent to the boulevard bath-house and bathing in the Concord river. She reported that objectionable billboards near the boulevard should be removed and that she would talk this matter over with the man who owns the property.

She also brought word that Mayor Thompson approves of the plan to place "No Trespass" signs along the Concord river banks to prohibit unauthorized bathing there. The committee addressed a communication to the board of directors, asking them to make such a request to the superintendent of police.

The committee again took up the question of the erection of some sort of protection around the pier of the new Pawtucket bridge. Miss Skilton said the mayor has promised this will be attended to immediately and there is money available for this work. Children play around these piers, she said, greatly endangering their lives, and the committee seeks the placing of a wire fence there to provide for their protection.

It was brought to the attention of the committee that in many districts of the city children are forced to play in the public streets and that they are in constant danger while so doing. It was suggested that something might be done along the line of closing certain side streets in congested districts to traffic between the hours of 6 and 8 p. m., thus allowing children to play there in safety.

Asks for Treaty Changes

furthermore, the army would not accept an order for its dissolution.

Framework of Active Army
The note further requests that Germany be allowed to retain the entire general staff and corps of officers, which means the entire framework of the active army. It proposes that the forces she is permitted to maintain be divided as follows:

Twelve divisions of infantry, with a complement of artillery; three divisions of cavalry, five special brigades, composed each of two regiments of infantry and two groups of artillery. The note also asks for one battalion of heavy artillery for each division of infantry; 160 airplanes, divided into eight groups, and four special companies of troops for railway work.

Two other German notes were handed to the foreign office at the same time. The first agreed to the disbandment of the elite guards as demanded by the allies. It has already been made public.

The second note embodied requests that the relictwehr force in the neutral zone should be fixed according to the number of men instead of the number of units and that Germany be allowed to have 11 batteries of artillery instead of two in the neutral zone.

Campaign of Falsehood
SAN REMO, April 21 (By the Associated Press).—Premier Nitti of Italy,

speaking today with reference to that country's policy toward Germany, Austria and Jugoslavia and also upon the financial situation of Italy, charged that a campaign of falsehood was being conducted by unknown persons against his country.

"The dissemination of false news detrimental to Italy is an abominable thing," Premier Nitti said. "It is a veritable campaign of libelous falsehoods. By whom is it promoted? Many telegrams which claim to have come from Italy prove to have been sent from neighboring countries by persons who have not lived in Italy and who are acting in the interests of unknown parties."

Halfour at San Remo

SAN REMO, April 21 (By the Associated Press).—Arthur J. Halfour, British member of the League of Nations' executive council, who has been acting as the presiding officer at the council's sessions, arrived in San Remo today to represent the League of Nations in discussions with the supreme council regarding the mandate for Armenia which the league had been asked to assume.

The discussion is expected to turn upon the question of funds and military forces, of which the league has none. Erzerum, which has been selected as the capital of Armenia, is the home city of Mustapha Kamel, the Turkish nationalist leader, and he is a deputy of that city in the Turkish parliament. He is reported to have 15,000 troops in Erzerum, which the league of Nations, under the mandate, would have the task of turning out.

BIG BUSINESS RUSH

AT POSTOFFICE

Although the "outlaw" railroad strike has caused a tremendous amount of parcel post business, which would ordinarily be handled by freight and express companies, to be diverted to the Lowell postoffice, Postmaster Mehan said today that the local office is at present entirely free from congestion and the unprecedented volume of mail matter is being handled with efficiency and despatch.

It has been necessary to put seven extra vehicles into service to care for the increased amount of parcel post, he said, and also employ many substitute carriers, all of which has caused extra expense to the department. The postmaster believes, however, that he will have little difficulty in coping with the situation.

Charged with operating a motorcycle without having a license in his possession, Ernest J. Barber of Nashua, N. H., operator of the machine which struck and slightly injured Miss Mary J. Maguire of 61 Butler avenue, in Merrimack Square yesterday noon, was fined $10 by Judge Fisher in the municipal court today. Barber said that he owned a motorcycle license, but had unintentionally left it in Nashua when he embarked on his trip to the Spindle City. Miss Maguire stepped directly in front of his machine, he said, and it was impossible to avoid striking her.

The thin and bloodless, with pale cheeks, white lips and frail angular physique, of this community have been much interested in the reports of physicians and others concerning the effectiveness of the treatment for increasing the red and white corpuscles of the blood, thus adding color and weight with its accompanying vigor to the depleted system. A gain of from 10 to 25 pounds is not at all unusual where the treatment is regularly used for several months, while the color improves almost from the beginning. Most good apothecaries supply it in the form of three-grain hypo-magnesian tablets, put up in sealed packets with directions for home use. Its action aids assimilation and absorption of the food eaten very promptly.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 10c and 25c a box.

Work on the construction of a new sanitary station on the South common west of the bandstand and towards Thorndike street was begun yesterday by Contractor Frederick F. Meloy.

An alarm from box 138 at 10:15 o'clock this forenoon, was for a slight blaze on the roof of a blacksmith shop in Ward street. At 2:40, the department was summoned by telephone to 25 Wyman street, for a chimney fire.

Members of the Washington club played host to their brethren of the Highland club in the Washington club quarters in Prescott street last evening and members of both organizations spent a most enjoyable time. Professor George L. Carter, billiard expert and instructor of the B.A.A., gave an exhibition, games of pool, billiards and bridge whilst were enjoyed and a buffet luncheon served.

The inter-church world movement got under way here yesterday with a meeting in Keith's theatre during the noon hour. Rev. A. Stanley Beale of the Highland Congregational church, as chairman of the committee on meetings, presided. The speakers were Rev. John P. Sala of Buffalo, N. Y., and William C. cal attention and the forces of physicians and nurses available locally are inadequate to cope with the situation. Tents and other temporary structures must be erected for numerous families whose homes were destroyed and a shortage of food is predicted as a result of the destruction of barns and warehouses, coupled with the complete obstruction of communicating roads.

The storm apparently struck in the rich farming belt near Hay Springs, Jasper county, Mississippi, and moved northeast across the remainder of the state and into Tennessee.

The deaths in Mississippi already reported total 118; in Alabama 45 and in Tennessee 3.

15 Dead in Jasper County

LAUREL, Miss., April 21.—Fifteen persons are known to have been killed and property valued at a million dollars destroyed in the tornado which swept through Jasper county, 15 miles north of Laurel, yesterday.

The two main buildings and the boys' dormitory of the Jasper county agricultural high school at Bay Springs, were demolished. Professor Bryant, one of the principals, and Miss Moore, music teacher, were killed.

Red Cross Sends Tents

ROAD OIL FOR THE STREET DEPARTMENT

Owing to the fact that the purchasing agent Edward H. Foye notified the Alden Spears Co. of Boston that it would receive the contract to supply the local street department with road oil for the present season despite the fact that Joseph J. Galvin of Boston submitted a lower bid, the municipal council will be obliged to give the contract to the former concern, according to City Solicitor William D. Kegan.

Mr. Foye notified the Alden Spears Co. of their success in view of the fact that Mr. Galvin failed to send a certified check with his bid, which was considerably below that of the other concern. The specifications said no bid would be considered unless accompanied by a check. However, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy of the street department feels that he should have been consulted before any firm was told who was to get the contract.

The contract is now in the office of the Alden Spears Co. and will be returned to Lowell next Friday. Commissioner Murphy told the municipal council at its meeting this morning the circumstances of the case and said that the only thing to do would be to have the contract approved as soon as it was returned. Accordingly, the council will meet Friday morning to take action on the matter.

This morning's meeting was called at 11:45 with all members present. A requisition from the street department asking that the purchasing agent be authorized to buy 100,000 paving blocks of varying dimensions, was approved.

The petition of Fortunato Heron that a curbstone be laid in front of his premises at 4 Bowers street was referred to Commissioner Murphy.

The petition of Margaret P. Snay for a garage license at 155 Sixth street was held for a hearing on May 11.

The council then voted to confirm sewer assessments against abutters on the following streets in accordance with a report from the engineer department: Pineview avenue, $77.21; Plymouth street, $204.10; Princeton street, $363.90; Riverside and Deland streets, $753.82; Staple street, $254.25.

ELECTRICIANS ARE STILL ON STRIKE

The strike of the journeymen electricians of this city, which started yesterday morning, is still on and according to the president of the Master Electricians, L. A. Derby, there is no sign of a settlement in sight just at present, although the master electricians are willing to meet the strikers and talk matters over with them.

The journeymen electricians sent a communication to the master electricians April 16, requesting a new scale of wages to become effective April 20, to wit, that the journeymen receive a minimum wage of $1 an hour and the helpers 60 cents an hour. According to Mr. Derby, there was not the slightest wrangling of a strike contained in the letter and the walk-out yesterday morning was a big surprise to the employers.

"We are willing to meet the strikers," said Mr. Derby this morning, "and see if we can agree on a new scale of wages, for we do not think their request is fair, as we believe the electricians should have a uniform scale of wages all over the city, corporations included. Prior to April 16 there was some talk about more wages for the journeymen and helpers and the master electricians and employees met and agreed upon a new arrangement, but the union refused to sign it and in reply sent the communication requesting $1 an hour for journeymen and 62 cents for helpers. We are now waiting for the journeymen to ask for a conference and are ready to meet them at any time."

ARTHUR SULLIVAN GUEST OF HONOR

Arthur Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Sullivan of Waverly avenue, who has just returned to Lowell after serving since the beginning of the world war with the United States naval forces, was the guest of honor at a reception tendered by a number of his friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Donohue, 495 High street, Monday evening.

Mr. Sullivan was a student at Harvard when the war began and immediately after his graduation he joined the navy. He was rapidly promoted to ensign and served in that capacity during the greater part of the conflict. He was formally welcomed home by Leo P. King, master of the Edison grammar school, on behalf of those present, and Mr. Sullivan responded fittingly. An enjoyable entertainment program included solos by John Corcoran of Cambridge, Harry Conroy of Manchester and James Carroll of Woburn, Conn., and piano solos by Miss Marie Palmer of Brookline. Games and dancing were enjoyed and a buffet luncheon served.

NEW GREEK SCHOOL

All architects who have entered the competition in submitting plans for the erection of the new Greek school will be notified, within a day or two, that all plans and sketches must be in the hands of the secretary of the Greek Orthodox community on a certain date to be mentioned in that notice. It is expected that all details will be cleared up in about a week so that the school committee of the Greek community may be called into session for the purpose of awarding the contract.

May Have Overall Brigade

denim might not be amiss. For one thing, conductors and motormen—as well as all other thrifty Lowellites who propose to flock to the Standard of General Overall—should hear in mind that even the best of overalls sometimes shrink. Therefore it would perhaps be well to get them a wee bit long at first. It would also be well to avoid getting caught in any showers, for should the overalls get soaked on the first wearing it might be found impossible to get out of 'em when one's day's work is done. And no one wants to sleep in overalls, no matter how intent one is on taking a fall out of the high cost of living.

Another reason for getting the overalls a little long at the bottom is that er up" are said to favor the idea and others are reported against it. Time alone will tell.

It is to be hoped that Lowell storekeepers will not attempt to put a crimp in the fight against high prices by raising the present price of overalls to unheard of limits. One may now purchase a nifty suit of overalls in the local stores for from $2 to $4—although of course, there are fancy articles which bring a trifle more.

They do say that the police, the firemen and the letter carriers are also giving the overall movement deep thought and that in all probability it will not be long before these organizations will lay aside their expensive outfits and turn to the plebian—but cheap—overalls. So far as is known, these last named bodies have taken no definite action as yet.

Maybe the girls—God bless 'em—will also take to wearing overalls. Can't never tell what the ladies will do when they get started, you know, and just at present the high cost of everything is making the feminine pocketbooks look like nothing at all.

Hurrah for the overall brigade! Let's all join.

Fatigue - the greatest enemy you have in your work today

EVERY year 800,000 serious industrial accidents occur in the United States. Authorities who have investigated these accidents claim that 83% of them would have been prevented had the worker not been fatigued.

Throughout the world tremendous efforts are being made to prevent the man who works with hand or brain from becoming over-fatigued.

Frederick W. Taylor, the noted engineer, has devoted years in planning work for the prevention of unnecessary fatigue. Frank B. Gilbreth, whose books "Fatigue Study" and "Motion Study" are landmarks, is constantly studying new ways to eliminate fatigue. The Society of Industrial Engineers has recently appointed a committee of noted men to study the same important problem.

New machine in England to test fatigue

To aid in the study of the problem, an ingenious machine has been devised in England. This machine makes it possible by repeated and comparative tests to determine in many cases the state of fatigue of the individual.

Dr. Winifred Cullis, Professor of Physiology at the London School of Medicine, during her recent visit to America, announced the results which had been obtained with its use. One of the most important results established is that men and women in various ways waste their precious energy.

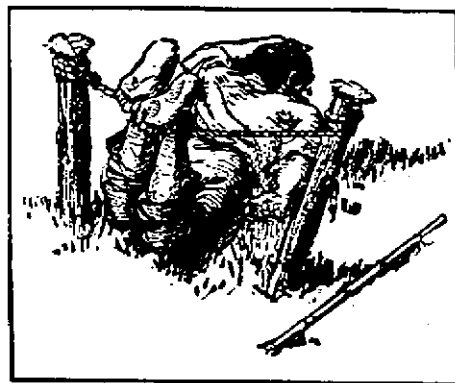

It is because of this waste that they become fatigued and are listless in their daily tasks. This is why so many fail, and meet defeat.

One of the greatest of these wastes comes from pounding away your energy on hard, modern pavements. Every step you take with hard leather heels or "dead" rubber heels acts as a hammer blow to your nervous system. If you are a person of average activity you take 8,000 steps a day. The constant repetition of these jolts and jars tends to exhaust your energy—to produce that tired-out feeling you so often experience.

Remove this cause of fatigue

You can do much to prevent this condition. You can eliminate the shocks of pounding hard heels on still harder pavements. O'Sullivan's Heels absorb these jolts and jars.

In early China and Persia there was a form of punishment, known as the Bastinado, which consisted of light blows on the feet of the victim with a small stick or lath of bamboo. The blows were scarcely more than taps but the constant repetition of the tapping reduced the strongest man to nervous exhaustion.

To secure the resiliency, the springiness of O'Sullivan's Heels, the highest grades of rubber are blended by a special formula. With this blend of live, springy rubber are "compounded" the best toughening agents known. The "compound" is then "cured" or baked under high pressure.

This is why O'Sullivan's Heels absorb the jolts and jars of walking. The same process that makes O'Sullivan's Heels resilient gives them their great durability. O'Sullivan's Heels outlast three pairs of leather heels—they often outlast two pairs of ordinary rubber heels.

Stop pounding away your energy. Go to your shoe repairer today and have O'Sullivan's Heels put on your shoes.

THE HOUSING PROBLEM

Daily the housing problem is becoming more serious and yet so far as Lowell or indeed Massachusetts is concerned, there is no remedy in sight. In New York city there is a big fight on against rent profiteers and from all accounts there has been ample ground for complaint on the part of the tenants. A "Tenant Right League" has been formed to combat the profiteers; but thus far very little has been accomplished. Stringent laws against rent extortion have been enacted; but yet the situation is not improved.

Rent sharks go about purchasing property and evicting the tenants unless they pay more. We have had examples of this in our own city, especially in reference to the stores; but we understand the practice is now being applied to tenement property. Here is how it works:

"A speculator buys the property, paying in cash only enough to bind the bargain, raises the rents all around, and on the new earning power seeks a purchaser. The latter is also a speculator. He gives the rents another upward shove, capitalizes the increased earning power and sells out."

When property is turned over and over several times, the rent being radically increased each time, the tenants are made to pay an amount far above what would be considered fair. This form of profiteering can flourish in cities where tenants cannot find a place of any description into which to move. But the shortage is general throughout the United States. It is the result of general neglect of the ordinary building operations during the war and since. It is estimated that the cost of our building enterprises in the United States in any one year, would be about four billion dollars; and we have certainly fallen behind a whole year's work in this respect, so that it will require several years in which to catch up.

Very few dwellings are being built today as a result of the extraordinary cost of labor and material. The prices are practically prohibitive. All the building operations in our city today, apart from city and corporation work, is confined to garages or minor repair jobs. Various measures of relief have been proposed, but none has thus far helped to any great extent. Housing committees are chosen, but unless they are able to build houses and let them at a fair rent, they can accomplish little. It has been suggested that the state should extend credit at low rates of interest for the building of homes. It is also proposed that cities and towns be empowered to acquire or hold and let adjoining lands; and, if necessary, carry on housing operations.

The British solution is to subsidize the building industry, allowing about $600 on every workman's home completed within the next year. The banks have become somewhat wary on loaning a large percentage of the property value on mortgages, lest from a slump in values which must come within the next four years, they should lose heavily even on taking over the property.

It seems that a housing committee might do much in Lowell by adopting some plan under which old, unused and even dilapidated property might be repaired and rented. There are probably fifty or seventy-five buildings in Lowell that might be made suitable for occupancy by this means. This, it seems, would be a fit matter for the Chamber of Commerce to consider.

WHO'S HERBERT HOOVER?

The subjoined editorial from the Fall River News states very plainly, and in our opinion very accurately, the true American view of the candidacy of Herbert Hoover for the presidency of the United States. The Fall River News is a staunch republican paper although it is not shouting for any particular candidate. It does, however, favor the choice of a candidate who will have no foreign entanglements. It was to avoid this danger that our constitution provided that none but citizens born in the United States or under the flag abroad, will be eligible for the office of president. Where a young man has resided for twenty-three years of his life in a foreign country, which happens to be the chief rival of the United States in trade, military and naval power, the objection to his candidacy is about as great as if he had been born in that country. But it does not hold in law. It should, however, be an objection sufficient to defeat any aspirant to the office of president. The people who have been shouting for Mr. Hoover should read the following editorial:

"Who knows where Red House, Horton street, is? Well, it is not in the United States, but in London, England, and for many years Herbert Hoover lived there. He was listed for years in 'Who's Who in the World' as living in 'Red House,' London, and as partner, Berwick, Moreing and Co., mine operators, London. 'Who's Who in America' for 1914-15 carried Herbert Hoover as living in 'Red House' with business interests centered in London. Yet we are asked to send this man to the White House, with a record of 23 years residence in England, with all his business interests English, in order to 'save' the United States!

"Letters have been sent out broadcast over the land to business men asking them to 'demand' the nomination and election of Mr. Hoover as president. Just why anyone should 'demand' the nomination of this anglicized American is not clear. Mr. Hoover spent American money for foreign wars with great energy, but so far as can be learned, he was never at any time concerned with American affairs.

"If we must look to Hoover for salvation from the many ills that beset us, then we must confess that the American system of government is a failure. For if we, with our population of over one hundred millions, have failed to develop any man into presidential calibre, certainly something is fundamentally wrong with our way of doing things. If we must take a man hailing from 'Red House, London' as our leader, then that government, of, by, and for the people, in which Lincoln had such confidence, has ceased to function as it should.

"Lord Grey, Colonel House, the New York World and the Saturday Post to the contrary notwithstanding, the American people will not rise on mass and 'demand' that this modern Moses lead them out of the wilderness. There are many men, Americans, who know and understand their country because they have lived their lives here, who are capable of serving the nation as president. The people will select one of these to be their leader and Mr. Hoover will not have the opportunity, which his friends so insolently demand he be given, to 'save' the country. There will be no life of Herbert Hoover written to which the title 'From the Red House to the White House' can be given."

INVITING IMMIGRANTS

While America is losing manpower because immigration has fallen off and emigration increased, other nations are deliberately adopting policies that are attracting workers.

By stationing agents in the principal European cities and by paying bonuses to steamship offices for selling passage tickets, some South American countries, Canada and Australia are aiding immigration.

South America is busy developing industries that will provide employment for foreigners. Brazil and Argentina are especially active.

New Zealand has arranged with the shipping companies for reduced fares for desirable immigrants. Numbers of Italians, Spaniards and French are going to Argentina, where there are many of these nationalities already located. Free land is being given to newcomers. Naturalized citizens are exempted from military service for 10 years. This is a distinct inducement to immigrants from "compulsory service" countries of Europe.

Brazil is not only paying passage for immigrants, but takes care of them on arrival and transports them free to their destination, provides them with tools and seeds, and supplies them with free medical care for themselves and families.

Chile is inducing immigration by giving 100 acres and implements to each immigrant.

The countries to the south of the United States, together with Australia and New Zealand, seem destined to take the place that the United States has held for the past hundred and fifty years as the "land of hope" for the immigrant.—N. E. A.

Instead of offering inducement to immigrants, we have set up a barrier against those who do not speak our language. No argument is required to show the absurdity of this policy, at a time when as a result of the shortage of farm labor, there is danger of a great decrease in the area under cultivation this year as compared with 1919. With the cost of living still soaring, every effort should be made to produce abundant crops this year; but with laborers unavailable even at $5 per day, the situation has become serious. The policy adopted by other countries, as indicated in the above editorial, would serve the best interests of the United States at the present time. This literary test so-called will turn the stream of emigration towards the South American republics with the result that they will receive the benefit of the influx that would otherwise have come to our shores.

GEDDES ON IRELAND

"There is no quarrel between England and Ireland," is the statement with which Sir Auckland Geddes introduces himself to the American public as British ambassador to the United States. Strange that he should come here with a statement which all the world knows to be false. He appeals to the world to let Ireland work out her own salvation under the so-called home rule bill which, he says, England is going to give her.

Sir Auckland Geddes knows full well that what he calls a home rule measure is unworthy of the name, that it is on the contrary a measure designed to partition Ireland on religious lines and place the majority of about four-fifths of the people under the unionist minority constituting about one-fifth.

This minority is regarded as a sort of British garrison in Ireland, always ready to side with British politicians such as Lloyd George and Bonar Law in opposition to the just claims of the Irish people.

The plan of the so-called home rule bill is to give the minority and majority each a local legislature and make provision whereby, if both agree, they can establish a central council to represent all of Ireland. And if such council should be established, the minority is to have equal representation with the majority and can block all action favored by the majority.

That would mean the chaining of Ireland in perpetual subordination to the minority. The aim is, to crush out the spirit of Irish nationality so that the people will have no more talk about freedom or self-determination, whether under a republican form of government or any other.

Lloyd George and his henchmen know very well that this is not home rule; Sir Auckland Geddes knows it as well as anybody; yet he comes here with the lie on his lips, to represent to the American people that Ireland is offered a bona fide form of home rule. It is nothing of the sort. It is a measure designed to promote discord and prevent every form of national initiative which does not receive the sanction of the unionist minority in Ireland.

British rule in Ireland has been execrable in the past; and it is unquestionably so at present; but yet to the Irish nationalists continued subordination to the British parliament would be immeasurably preferable to the form of bondage that would result from subjection to the Ulster minority whose fanaticism towards the majority and zeal in behalf of British sway, has already been amply demonstrated.

Sir Auckland Geddes will find some difficulty in imposing this falsehood upon the American people who have already a very fair knowledge of the situation.

It is to be regretted, however, that the ambassador of England should leave himself open to the charge of hypocrisy by wilfully misrepresenting the facts. He asks that Ireland be left "to work out her own destiny." Yes, that is what Ireland wants if she be permitted to do so; but she can never do so while enbondaged to a band of avowed traitors to everything Irish.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The fortunate individuals who had purchased new clothing to wear Easter Sunday, but who were hampered in "showing off" because of the unpleasant weather that afternoon and evening made a "comeback" on Patriots day and had ample opportunity under the best possible circumstances to parade with their dandy on exhibition. Rarely has April produced so pleasant a day as Monday and people here in Lowell who had not planned to devote themselves to home gardening or cleaning took full advantage of the weather to walk downtown. If a person could have taken the time to stand a few hours in Merrimack square during the early afternoon, he probably would have had a most representative exhibition of spring styles from both the masculine and feminine viewpoints. The "mow" was not confined to downtown, however, for so inviting was the weather that hundreds were attracted to the suburbs.

GET RID OF "SPRING FEVER"

If you lack energy, if you are tired and languid, if you do not feel like exerting yourself, if you lack "zip"—the chances are that your bowels are sluggish. A Fort Cathartic Tablet is a cost and wholesome remedy that will rid you of biliousness, gas, bloating, sick headache, sour stomach or other ills that attend indigestion and constipation. They cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach and invigorate the liver. R. W. Shaw, 1122 Col. St. Middlesex St. Moody's Drug Store, 54 Central St.—Adv.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barton

THE MAGICAL MUSHROOM GETS HELP.

"So this is the trouble!" exclaimed seen his bright red shirt, and I've heard his bright red shirt. He thinks he can chase me, too, but he can't. And Jack Frost pinched another little fairy's ears harder! "If spring, and the robin, and the pussy-willows once get a chance," he went on, "I'm done for, and I'm going to stay as long as I can." Well, the Magical Mushroom didn't know what to do then. He was magical, but only for some things, and Jack Frost wasn't one of them. Suddenly,

ALFRED EHRENREICH, PRESIDENT OF THE OCEAN LEATHER CO., AND PORPOISES CAUGHT FOR SHOE LEATHER.

I care for your Fairy Queen. She can't boss me! I'm a fairy myself, sort of. She may boss you, and she may boss those Green Slugs the twins wear, but she can't boss me. I'll do as I please! Spring's peeping over the top of that hill, there. I've seen her two or three times, but I'm not going to let her chase me if I can help it. That robin Nancy cleaned up when she was helping Rubadub in Scrub-Up Land, is waiting, too. I've however, he thought of something. He knew of one thing that Jack Frost was afraid of!

"Come, kiddies," he said to the twins, climbing into Nancy's pocket again. "Tell your Green Shoes to whisk us to the Fairy Queen's palace right away." And as they disappeared, Jack Frost, suspecting trouble, pinched another little fairy's nose hardest of all.

Nominated President of Cuba

HAVANA, April 20.—Senator Maza y Artola was nominated for president of Cuba by the national assembly of the republican party today. The senator was elected to the upper house of congress as a conservative. He has opposed many of the most important measures advocated by the present administration, especially the Crowder electoral law.

SEEN AND HEARD

Let's make the dust fly this week and clean up things so well they will stay that way all summer.

Don't throw away any old pair of overalls you happen to have hanging around. Such garments are most fashionable in some places.

The time honored potato salad will now quietly disappear from the restaurant menu with "spuds" retailing for $1.25 per peck.

We have often wondered why Maine is the only other state to observe April 19 as a holiday. Have the Pine Tree states another "rude bridge" that arched the flood?

Will another Shakespeare-Bacon controversy arise in regard to whether it was Paul Revere or John Dawes who really carried the news to Concord farmers?

A little more of yesterday's weather and folks will feel inclined to look up time tables and a place to spend a "gorgeous" fortnight. By the way, have you asked for summer hotel rates yet?

Chickens Come Home to Roost
"You must have plenty of nerve," said Col. Lookout. "The idea of stealing my chickens and then trying to sell them to me!"

"Why, c'mon, I thought you'd pay a better price for chickens you'd raised yourself," returned Johnson. "You'd know what you're buying."

Her Turn to Ride
"My," exclaimed Mr. Klumsay at the sophomore colt, "this floor's awful slippery. It's hard to keep on your feet."

"O," replied the fair partner, sarcastically, "then you were really trying to keep on your feet? I thought it was purely accidental."

Years and Years Ago
Both stage ladies were after a job and the booking agent had but one to offer. "Sorry," he said. "It's all I have that's at all suited to either of you, and it will have to go to the one with the most experience."

"I give up," announced the younger of the two. "It's her part. She dates back to the time when eggs were so cheap the audiences threw 'em at her!"

At His Own Funeral
It was bright and early when Simpkins entered the office and he felt very fit—till he found his employer standing waiting by his desk.

"Good morning, sir," quoth Simpkins, in tones he hoped sounded blither than he felt.

"Morning," snapped the boss. "Where were you yesterday?"

"I had to attend the funeral of an aunt, sir," replied Simpkins sadly.

His employer glared coldly at him as he departed sternly.

"While you have been here, Simpkins, you have buried your parents, one grandfather and two grandmothers, four aunts and three uncles; you may as well know now that if you attend any funerals for the next year or so, it might as well be your own, for I won't have you back here."

FRENCH TROOPS IN CONTROL OF AINTAB

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19 (By the Associated Press).—French troops, equipped with heavy artillery, entered Aintab, Asia Minor, on April 11, and have effectively relieved the situation there, according to a statement made public at the French embassy here.

Messages sent from Aintab on April 12, asking for immediate aid for American workers there, were received in this city last week.

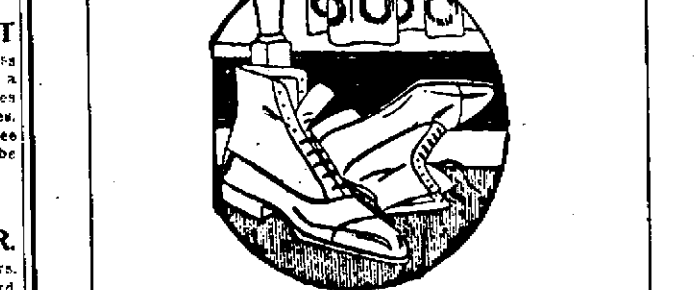

The French position in Cilicia is viewed as extremely difficult. Railroad communications between Mersina, where French forces landed last week, and Aintab, further east, were interrupted on April 11, it is stated by travelers arriving here from the southern Asia Minor coast. The railroad traverses level country without important bridges, and the Turks removed rails from the road, thus cutting off the French at Mersina from their chief base of supplies.

Northward, in the interior, the Turks have cut the railway by wrecking cars in an important tunnel between Adana and Uuklelia. A French troop train was derailed in this region early in April and a detachment of French troops is isolated north of the break in the line. The railway from Adana to Aleppo has also been cut by the Turks.

The exodus of Mexican laborers from Mexico to the United States is increasing.

MINSTREL SHOW

And Dance by the Crescent Hill Associates

Everything is in readiness for the big minstrel show and dance to be staged at Associate hall tomorrow night by the Crescent Hill association, Inc. The main object of this popular association is to secure the necessary funds to erect a clubhouse and athletic field in Centralville that will be a credit to the city and state. At the present time it is the only section of the city that is without such facilities for the young men. The clubhouse will be erected in Eustis avenue, and will be easy of access not only to the residents of this fast growing district, but also for the people of Lowell proper, as two electric car lines will almost pass the door.

The entertainment part of the program will consist of 15 numbers and the following talent will take part: Mrs. Anatasia Tobin, Miss Beata Gendreau, Miss Emily Gaudette, Miss Alice Dion and Miss Frances O'Donnell; Frank Connor, Edward Donohue, William Collins, Joseph Dowling, John "Doc" Keefe, George "Babe" Rogers and James Manning. McGrath and Walker will be seen in a song and dance sketch, and Jas. Kennedy in a whistling solo.

The big feature of the evening will be the first appearance of the Crescent Hill double male quartet. This quartet is made up exclusively of members of the association, and those who were privileged to hear them at Sunday's dress rehearsal declared that they were worth the price of admission alone.

The chorus is made up of 50 voices, male and female, and has been under the personal supervision of Charles D. Slattery. Leo Betoncourt is the musical director and Joseph Terry will act as interlocutor.

Immediately after the entertainment dancing will commence and will continue until 1 o'clock. Batchelder's

SWAMP-ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENTS

There is only one medicine that really stands out pre-eminent as a medicine for curable ailments of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root stands the highest for the reason that it has proven to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of distressing cases. Swamp-root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Lowell Sun.

Overseas orchestra of nine pieces will furnish the music. The tickets are 35 cents, tax paid.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Charles E. Smith of Chicopee and Miss Sarah E. Haworth of this city were married April 19 by Rev. N. W. Matthews, the ceremony being performed at the parsonage of the German Street P. M. church, 15 Ellsworth street. The couple were attended by Mr. Charles T. Nield, Jr., and Mrs. Lilian Potter. They will make their home in Chicopee.

Lorman-Nell

Mr. Walter E. Lorman and Miss Beatrice E. Nell were united in marriage April 19 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nell, 92 Humphrey street, the officiating clergyman being Rev. George D. Marston of the Fifth Street Baptist church.

Hamil-George

The marriage of Mr. Louis Hamil of Jamaica, N. Y., and Marie Anne George of this city took place April 18 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cantara, 11 Webster street. After an extended wedding trip to Boston, Providence, R. I., and other places the couple will be at home to their friends at 11 Webster street.

"BE CAREFUL" SIGNS SHOW ACCIDENTS

DALLAS, Texas—Bulletin boards announcing every accident and its cause and presenting photographs of automobile collisions helped to carry home to people here the value of care in the "Be Careful" campaign presented here recently in an effort to reduce traffic accidents.

THOUSANDS PLAN TO LIVE IN TENTS

NEW YORK, April 21.—Thousands of New York families, some of the 73,114 registered as "homeless" by the tenement house department, are expected to live in tents furnished by the United States army until the present housing dearth is remedied, according to men interested in the building trade here. Just where they will locate their new domiciles has not yet been decided, although an army of real estate agents, "mobilized" as it were, "overnight" in Greater New York, has vast acreages of vacant land to lease in four of the five boroughs.

"From 1500 to 2000 families will live in tents in Pelham Bay park alone," declared Walter C. Martin, superintendent of the Bronx tenement house department, "and I have no doubt but that many other sections will have whole colonies of tent dwellers after May 1. In view of the anticipated increased demand for tentage, especially by evicted families, I shall write to the war department for sufficient canvas to meet all possible need in the Bronx."

On top of the present housing shortage looms the prospect of the usual horde of pleasure seekers, many of them with abundant war profits or earnings, who are coming to the metropolis for their summer outing. Some of these will offer landlords attractive prices for temporary quarters and, where tenants are occupying apartments from month-to-month and paying exorbitant rents, the result is expected to be an increased number of evictions on May 1 and June 1.

Evasion of the anti-rent profiteering laws recently passed at Albany is a common charge in many cases against landlords up for trial in the municipal courts. Thousands of tenement "owners" to circumvent the law which compels the landlords to prove their rights to raise rents more than 25 per cent. a year, have notified tenants to vacate their property by September 1. Then

Often Trouble Those Who Neglect Constipate Bowels.

Indigestion, Headaches, Bad Blood, Rheumatism, Pimples, Boils, Etc., Are Only a Few.

Try Efficient Sulphur Tablets.

If you or any member of your family, young or old, are bothered with constipation, you can surely get pleasant, lasting relief, while at the same time you can rid the system of a multitude of ailments which may owe their origin to the pent-up poisons in your body. Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets) act beneficially on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood, and once you know their cheapness and their value, nothing would induce you to be without them.

Mrs. A. B. Coleman, 1605 Hackberry St., Austin, Tex., writes: "I use your Sulphur Tablets for my whole family and they are just simply fine." Guaranteed satisfactory and sold by all good druggists—40c—adv.

Dr. Hewson, CENTRAL ST. Opp. Nelson's

1, 1919 there were 953,135 living apartments in New York, large enough approximately for 3,331,704 persons. Under the law, it must be remembered, a "tenement" may mean a building on Riverside Drive as well as in the lower East Side. Since January 1, the city has had an estimated increase of 538,861 in population but the building construction which has been done since that date is sufficient to house only 163,450 persons, according to the Real Estate Board.

Meanwhile the war is over and trainloads of oil, steel, lumber and automobile men and thousands of other prosperous Americans are said to be planning to invade the Great White Way. Trainloads already have arrived. For most of them it will be no short vacation. Many are bringing their families and they are prepared to pay fancy prices for accommodations. All of which gives joy to the landlord and real estate dealer who see visions of a beautiful harvest.

So while tired mothers with babies in arms, leave baby carriages outside courtroom doors, and with worried husbands plead against eviction from their homes the magistrates after granting them temporary stays, postpone the hearings to "read up" on the new legislation put through at Albany. And while Mayor Hylan's committee struggles for a solution of the complicated problem, city marshals accuse each other of profiteering in eviction cases. Hundreds of men, said to be without authority, were also reported posing as "marshals" and serving disposssession notices some of them "earning" as high as $2,000 a month.

DENY POLES TO SEIZE GERMAN TERRITORY

WARSAW, April 20.—Reports printed in the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin in the office of the Polish government has informed the allied supreme council it intends soon to occupy German territory if Germany fails to carry out her engagements with the Poles are denounced by the foreign office here as being without foundation.

BROOKLYN STORE TO CUT PRICES

NEW YORK, April 21.—Federal District Attorney Ross of Brooklyn announced last night that one of the largest department stores in that borough had agreed to cut prices of a number of lines of wearing apparel and shoes for men, women and children.

dress, the lines selected to be those in greatest demand. This reduction, which was voluntary and announced after officials of the store had conferred with Mr. Ross and members of the government's flying squadron, was made possible, he explained, by the willingness of the store to accept a smaller margin of profit than heretofore.

LOCAL ATTORNEY SUES FOR SERVICES

An action of contract brought by Edward J. Tierney, local attorney, against Felix Dobrolowski, whereby the plaintiff seeks to recover $500 for professional services rendered, went to trial in the superior civil court today. The defendant is one of two brothers arrested last fall on a charge of radicalism. Mr. Tierney was represented by James J. Kerwin, while the defendant appeared in his own behalf. The case was given to the jury just before the noon recess at 12 o'clock.

The next case on the list is an action of contract brought by Charles G. Vau of this city, against the Jackson and Newton Co. The plaintiff seeks to recover for damages alleged to have resulted from a delay in delivery of plate glass for use in a store and garage built by him. Mr. Vau is represented by Quin, Howard and Rogers, with James H. Flanagan of Boston for the defendant.

NEW WAGE SCHEDULE ON RAILROAD

The regulations agreed upon in Washington on Jan. 13, 1920, between the United States railroad administration represented by Walker D. Hines, the director general, and the national committee of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, regarding the payment of wages, will be made effective during this week at the local depot. The computation of wages, according to those rates stipulated in that agreement, will be made retroactive to Jan. 1, 1920, when it was supposed to have become effective.

The rules governing the hours of service and working conditions of the employees on railroads which were then under federal operation, state that time in excess of eight hours, exclusive of meal period, on any day, is to be considered overtime and paid on the actual minute basis. For those employees who are rated hourly, overtime will be computed at the rate of time and one-half.

For daily rated employees, when the full number of hours per week are worked, overtime will be computed at the rate of time and one-half.

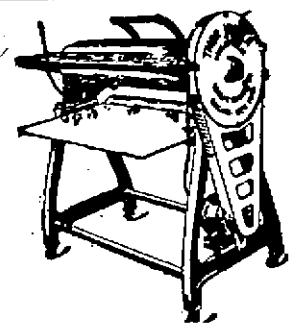

Those in the pay-roll department at the local depot are busy computing the back pay of local employees. The computation will be made according to the above regulations and will give back pay to clerks, other office boys, messengers, chore boys, train announcers, gatemen, checkers, baggage and parcel room employees, train and engine crew callers, operators of office or station equipment devices, telephone switch board operators, elevator operators, office station and warehouse watchmen, and janitors and laborers employed in and about stations, storehouses, and warehouses.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA

Eight more applications for membership were received at last evening's meeting of Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, and one former member was reinstated. The class of 23 is now about half formed, and it is confidently expected that it shall be completed at the next meeting. An important change in the by-laws is to be acted upon at that time, and an entertainment is to be given under the direction of Past Commander George E. B. Bowring and Commander George A. Heap, at the conclusion of the business. A past commanders' night is set for Tuesday, May 18th.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Busy evenings are now the rule at meetings of Chevalier-Middlesex lodge, Knights of Pythias. Three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the rank of page at the last meeting and five more applications for membership were received. The rank of esquire is to be conferred upon three pages at the next meeting.

Desdemona, Texas, Outlaws, Make Mistake Of Arousing American Legion's Ire

BY JESSE F. GELDERS

N.E.A. Staff Correspondent.

DESDEMONA, Texas, April 21.—The click of poker chips and the sharp command, "Hands up!"

American Legion men pitted against the men and women who took their illicit share of oil boom prosperity—under glaring lights to the tune of mechanical pianos—

The drama of victory for home-loving citizens, after a bitter fight in which death threats have flown thick and fast—

This is the story of a town's regeneration, after the breath of the bad old west threatened to set back moral progress for a generation or more.

With its rush of wealth, gushing up from subterranean reservoirs, evil days fell on the law-abiding community of Desdemona. Two hundred and fifty of the original 300 townspeople left, declaring that "it was no fit place to bring up a family."

And, while no one disagreed with them, no one attempted to better conditions until a Purity league was formed, to clean out the crooks.

"Typical Tenderfoot"

Back of the gang was a suave, well-groomed person who would have been hailed as a typical tenderfoot in the days when the west was wild. He was graduated from an aristocratic eastern college; then he came to Desdemona and began the organization of a vice machine.

J. S. Sanders, secretary of the league, said: "Lots of us were even sorry that oil had been found. It brought money, but it cost us something money couldn't buy."

The league paid two deputy sheriffs special salaries of $125 a month. But open gambling continued, painted women swarmed the main street by day and night, moonshine whiskey flowed in without restraint.

Governor Hobby was appealed to. Sanders wrote the governor: "There are seven gambling houses running wide open under the direct protection of the sheriff's and county attorney's departments."

"Every officer in this county, including the justice of the peace, is believed to be getting his slice of the rake-off. If any one tries to get one of these houses raided, while the warrants are being sworn out one of the local officers will notify the houses to close. If you will go into one of these houses for a few hours at night, you will see from one to three local officers."

More than 100 immoral women

are paying for protection. Desdemona is in disgrace today.

"I taught school in Texas nine years. I have a wife, three little girls and two boys. I have one of the best homes in Desdemona. Have I any protection under the law?" The pastor of the Baptist church and the Purity league chairman were pelted with beer bottles as they shadowed a dive.

Peacock Forced Out

A grand jury was called. Deputy Sheriff Peacock was ordered dismissed and George "Big" Bedford, another deputy, resigned.

But the Purity league was still on the defensive. Peacock circulated a petition and had himself appointed constable. Bedford was reappointed deputy sheriff and the opponents of the league were more strongly entrenched than ever.

Peacock charged that Sanders and Captain Horace Soule had hired the president of the league to kill him.

"Peacock challenged any representative of the league to a gun duel," said Soule, an attorney.

The next turn of the battle came with the incorporation of the town of Desdemona and its first election.

Purity League Bitten

The Purity league placed a ticket in the field, which was unsupported until two days before election, when another set of candidates was announced, with Peacock seeking the office of town marshal.

Then came the rangers. They rode into town under the governor's orders and burned six wagonloads of gambling equipment on election day.

But the Purity league was beaten. Many voters appeared with affidavits permitting them to vote. It is charged that these were issued in wholesale lot in blanket form.

The gang was in power. The women, who had left town in fear of the Purity league's success, flocked back with reinforcements.

New gambling outfits were hastily erected and the town again was wide open.

Once more the rival gambling joints competed for trade. Cards were distributed inviting patrons to "Monte Carlo" and similar resorts.

Then it was that the gang, grown arrogant, overstepped itself and kindled the wrath of the legion men, which meant the finish of free-and-easy vice in Desdemona.

Peacock On Warpath

Bob Peacock, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, invaded the headquarters of the legion. Peacock covered three men with a gun while the women tore down posters and clippings from the walls. They destroyed a banquet announcement bearing the portrait of Captain A. F. Bates, post commander, whom all the service men knew as "Pa."

As a member of the Purity league, Bates had attacked corruption.

The state legion headquarters was notified. Where the torn poster clung to the wall, newspaper clippings describing the affair were pasted, and a new poster displayed. Peacock, confident of his pull and power, was in a rage. Again he tore down the poster.

Then the state officials were aroused. Plainclothes men arrived and the painted women began to steal away. Gambling halls are dark in Desdemona; the law has arrived; the Purity league, coming into power, has wiped out organized crookedness.

PASSION FLOWER WONDERFUL PLANT

A perfect specimen of the passion flower is now on exhibition at the Old Lowell National bank, a product of the hot-house of Peter T. Donohoe in High street. The passion flower is extremely rare in this part of the country at any season of the year and especially at this time. Mr. Donohoe was given the seed of the flower by a friend and by careful cultivation has grown a most beautiful specimen.

The passion flower has two distinct sets of petals, one being of a type closely resembling those of the rose and another of vivid purple standing upright. The center of the flower is in the form of a cross and the styles resemble nails.

The flower received its name from early Spanish settlers in this country who saw in it a representation of Christ's passion. One of the features of the flower is that it remains open only 24 hours and then closes up and dies.

FIRST ANNUAL DANCE

Many Lowell clubs were represented at the first annual dance staged by the R-U-With-Us Girls in Lincoln hall on Monday evening. One of the features was the decoration of the hall which was planned in a great degree by the officers of the club. The color scheme was red, white and blue and just before intermission, three score happy dancers were showered with confetti and red, white and blue streamers. Among those who helped to make the dance so successful were Lawrence Cornell and John Gallagher. The officers of the dance were: Bessie Gray, general manager; Florence Buckley, assistant manager; Della Maroney and Ruth O'Grady, floor directors; Mary Terris, Katie Terris, Vera and Sadie Cornell, Alice Hosty and Hazel Cornell, aids.

RAILROAD STRIKE DELAYS SEWER WORK

Delay in freight shipments, due presumably to the recent railroad strike, is interfering seriously with the work of the local street and sewer department, according to Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy.

A number of sewer jobs have been held up owing to the non-arrival of sewer pipe ordered some time ago and paving work is being impeded because of the absence of cement. In addition, the two new street sweeping machines ordered by the commissioner a month or more ago, which were to have been delivered here on April 15, have not yet put in an appearance.

CONVICTS IN PLOT TO BREAK JAIL

Hoped to Fight Way to Freedom With Guns of Overpowered Guards

Six Prisoners, Including Three Murderers Implicated in Plot

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 21.—A plot by which six prisoners at the state prison at Howard hoped to fight their way to freedom with the guns of overpowered guards, was interrupted today when the convicts, including three murderers, were sent to solitary confinement.

William Trent and James D. Mello, life term men; George J. Smith, serving 30 years for the slaying of an Olneyville grocer, Edward H. Mason, colored, and Thomas J. Allen, each serving 20 years for assaulting Deputies Colvin and Fillingham, with intent to kill them in an effort to escape from a prison van, and Jean de Marquette, serving five years for burglary, are the prisoners implicated, according to Warden Charles S. Linscott.

The plot was to be carried out last Saturday or Sunday afternoon, while the men were having yard privilege, but a majority of the plotters felt it would be a bad time and after discussing the prospects decided to postpone the attempt until next Saturday afternoon or Sunday. An automobile, which according to Mason's story, had been promised to be standing outside the prison wall was not in place Saturday or Sunday.

JOHNSON LEADING IN NEBRASKA PRIMARY

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—Returns from 336 out of 1849 precincts received today showed that Senator Johnson led the field of candidates for republican presidential preference in yesterday's primary, the vote being:

Johnson, 12,002; Wood, 8741; Pershing, 5508; Ross, 481.

With the small number of precincts heard from, William Jennings Bryan is running sixth in a field of eight for delegate-at-large to the democratic national convention. He has displayed his greatest strength outside of Douglas county, where the large majority of the vote is still to be heard from.

For the democratic preference the vote for Senator Hillecock ran as high as 4 to 1 over Robert Ross of Lexington. Early returns also showed Governor Samuel M. McKelvie, republican, to be leading his field, with Adam McMullen in second place. John H. Morehead, democratic candidate for governor, is leading his four opponents.

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—W. J. Bryan made further gains during the counting of the vote this morning, and while he remained in sixth place among the eight candidates for democratic delegates at large, he gained on the leaders. In 368 out of 1849 precincts the vote stood: Hillecock, delegates, Neville 11,491; Shallenberg 11,003; Nebel, 10,186; McNeny, 8541; Bryan, Delegates Stephens 8642; Bryan, 8050; Berg, 7594; Thomas, 7357.

LOWELL MAY HAVE OVERALL BRIGADE

Lowell conductors and motormen are going to sign up with General Overall, whose march against the guerrilla forces of M. H. G. L. started recently in the south, gained strength in the west and now has reached the east for decisive battle!

At least this was the statement today of a member of the joint conference board of the carmen's union, which is now negotiating with the trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. relative to a new agreement covering wages and other conditions.

Local carmen, as well as those throughout the Eastern Massachusetts system, are seeking to have a clause inserted in the proposed agreement to permit the blue-uniformed forces to do their present garb—which retails at $35 and $38 a suit—and henceforth wear blue denim overalls, according to this official.

He believes, does the official afford, that the carmen will have no difficulty in winning their point—and should this prove the case it will not be many moons before local conductors and motormen will appear in overalls and jumpers, instead of the regulation outfit of the present day.

This should make business very good for local laundries, as many members of the local carmen have not as yet embarked on the sea of matrimony, and will perforce be obliged to have the overall nicely laundered at least once a week.

And now that we are discussing overalls, perhaps a word of advice to these prospective wearers of the blue

GERMANY ASKS TREATY CHANGES

Seeks Modification of Military Clauses to Enable Her to Maintain Larger Force

Request Contained in Note Handed to French Foreign Office

PARIS, April 21.—Germany has asked the inter-allied conference at San Remo to increase from 100,000 to 200,000 men the standing army provided for Germany by the terms of the treaty of Versailles.

The request was contained in a note handed to the French foreign office last night with the demand that it be sent to the supreme council at San Remo.

The note set forth that an increased force was necessary for the maintenance of order in the interior and that.

FOR PARKWAY ALONG THE MERRIMACK RIVER

Residents of Pawtucketville who have been waiting patiently for the past several months for some action on the part of the municipal council on their petition for an appropriation of $50,000 for the parkway along the Merrimack river, will be encouraged by the statement of Mayor Perry D. Thompson that he believes the council will take action on the matter early in May or as soon as the city has increased its distance from the debt limit.

However, Pawtucketville will not receive the entire $50,000 in a lump sum this year, the mayor says, and he believes his attitude reflects that of the council as a whole. There are too

MAY NOT REOPEN LOWELL-NASHUA LINE

There is a possibility that the Lowell-Nashua line of the local division of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. will not be re-opened this year and that Gregoire's Corner beyond Mountain Rock will be the end of the route for Bay State cars.

The line has been closed since early in the winter when a sequence of heavy storms buried the rails under a heavy blanket of ice and snow. With the coming of spring cars began to operate as far as Gregoire's Corner, thus giving service to people living in that vicinity and who worked in Lowell or Collinsville.

The advisability of putting the entire line in operation now is being considered by the public trustees of the road and a decision is expected within a few days. It is understood that the company feels there is insufficient traffic beyond that corner to keep the route on a paying basis. Cars south-bound from Nashua finish their run about four miles the other side of Gregoire's.

At the present time Lowell has electric car connections with New Hampshire only over the tracks of the Massachusetts-Northeastern via Pelham. These cars go through only four times a day at present, but will operate to Pelham every half hour and to Nashua every hour when the summer schedule is adopted.

The public trustees and the joint conference board of the local unions on the Eastern Massachusetts system are now holding daily conferences for the discussion of terms of another working agreement and wage scale. The agreement now in force expires on May 1.

It is understood that both sides are approaching the question in a conciliatory spirit and hope to be able to conclude their negotiations within a few days. When they have straightened out all points upon which they can agree, they will then turn over the other matters still at issue to a board of arbitration, composed of Philip G. Carleton, attorney for the company; James H. Vahcy, attorney for the carmen, and Hugh W. Ogden, the choice of the company and union representatives as the third member of the board.

TOUCH OF JAZZ

Girl Secretaries in Overalls Create Sensation at Capitol

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The staid house office building was given a touch of jazz today by six young women secretaries who enrolled as the newest recruits in Representative Upshaw's overalls brigade.

Appearing in blue denim trousers, the bottoms of which were rolled well up above their high heeled pumps, the young women created something of a sensation and had a large following as they tripped gaily along the corridors. The drabness of the uniforms was relieved by multi-colored silk waists and silk stockings.

"It's a horrifying spectacle," chorused a dozen daughters of the American Revolution as their night-sewing trip through the big office building was interrupted by the crowds following the young secretaries.

STRIKERS AGREE TO GO BACK

New York "Outlaws" Reach Agreement With Brotherhood Unions

Leave Case Now Before Labor Board in Hands of Regular Brotherhoods

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The possibility of several months' delay in the settlement of the wage demands of the two million railroad workers developed today during discussions between representatives of the roads and the brotherhoods before the railroad labor board when hearings on the demands were resumed.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—An agreement with the railroad brotherhood unions, under which the striking railroad workers in the metropolitan district of New York will return to work immediately was announced here today by Edward McHugh, spokesman for the strikers.

Mr. McHugh said he had abandoned the effort to have the case of the New York men taken up separately by the railroad labor board and that his committee would return to New York today leaving their case in the hands of the leaders of the regular brotherhoods.

JUDGE BUMPUS OF QUINCY DEAD

BOSTON, April 21.—Judge Everett C. Bumpus of Quincy, a former member of the International Panama land claims commission and prominent as a lawyer in New England, died at a hospital here today aged 75. Death followed a cerebral hemorrhage.

Judge Bumpus was a captain in the Civil war. He had been judge of the East Norfolk district court and district attorney of southeastern Massachusetts.

SHIP CARLOADS OF SHOES BY MAIL

MIDDLEBORO, April 21.—Express and freight shipments continue so uncertain because of strike and embargo conditions on the railroads that local shoe manufacturers are shipping shoes by mail in carloads. One car which left here today carried 3000 in postage. Several more cars of parcel post matter from the factories will be sent out during the week.

DEALING IN ALCOHOL

Agent Francis J. O'Hare of the board of health, states that the board is ready to receive applications for licenses from Lowell persons desiring to engage in any business involving the manufacture, buying, selling or dealing in wood or denatured alcohol for manufacturing and commercial purposes. A state law says persons who use any preparation involving more than three per cent alcohol for other than beverage purposes must have a license issued through the local board of health. The license fee is $1.00.

TWO HURLED TO DEATH IN AUTO

Machine Dropped Over 20 Foot Embankment and Fell Into Saugus River

Former Service Men Perished When Speeding Machine Got Out of Control

LYNN, April 21.—Ovila Cantain of Westbrook, Me., and Louis A. Pomerleau of West Somerville, a chauffeur, were drowned in the Saugus river early today when their automobile, speeding along the Revere beach boulevard, got out of control at a curve and plunged down a 20-foot embankment. The car is owned by Lucien Hunt of Somerville, a retired business man who has been staying several days in Westbrook, where Pomerleau's parents live. It is supposed that Pomerleau, accompanied by Cantain, had started for Westbrook to bring his employer home when the accident occurred. Both Cantain and Pomerleau were former service men.

LOWELL ROTARY CLUB HEARS MR. TUFTS

Nathan A. Tufts, district attorney for Middlesex county, was the speaker this noon at the regular meeting of the Lowell Rotary club at the Harmonia. He took the vitally interesting question of Bolshevism and its attending dangers as his subject and treated it under the topic, "The Danger of the Reds."

Speaking to the club as a body of business men representing practically every industry in the city, the district attorney sounded a clear note of warning unless just such men, manifestly disinterested in politics, at least from the standpoint of actual participation in political campaigns and drives for better representation in city, state and national law making bodies make such things their earnest concern.

"Unless just such men as you interest yourselves in politics and provide the necessary instruments to deal with the reds and Bolshevik movements and the spread of propaganda, the menace will continue to grow in our country, undermining our ideals and the very foundation of our government," said the district attorney.

SAMUEL FUDIM BUYS GOWARD PROPERTY

A long stretch of business and dwelling property on the south side of Middlesex street between Pearl and Canal streets, has been purchased by Samuel Fudim from E. T. Goward at a price estimated at $33,000. The property includes three stores and two and one-half story dwelling houses. The new owner plans to modernize the buildings it is said.

CALL FIREMEN TAKE EXAMINATION

Four of the eleven call firemen whose positions have been abolished by the municipal council have taken advantage of the offer of Commissioner John F. Salmon to appoint them to the permanent force providing they pass the necessary physical examination. James E. Burns, John Frazier, Frank A. Kappler and Fred Mansur have asked the commissioner for the privilege of taking the examination and Mr. Salmon, in turn, has sent a letter of introduction to City Physician Michael A. Tighe.

DEATH LIST OF 155 REPORTED

Property Damage in Tornado-Swept District Will Run Into Millions

Hundreds of Injured in Need of Medical Attention—Many Live in Tents

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—Revised reports today from the tornado-stricken areas of Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee placed the number of fatalities resulting from yesterday's storm at 155, nine less than first reported today. The later reports told of hundreds injured and estimated the property damage at more than $20,000,000.

Need of Assistance

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—Assistance is urgently needed for the relief of tornado survivors in a dozen counties of Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee, reports today from the storm-swept district indicated. The tornado has taken rank as one of the most disastrous and most widespread in the annals of the south.

Shortage of Food Feared

Hundreds of injured require medical attention.

HOME RULE COMMITTEE

The street railway home rule committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the aldermanic chamber at city hall.

Prices Tumble in Grain Market

CHICAGO, April 21.—Prices crashed heavily downward in the grain market today, especially in the last 15 minutes of trading. Corn fell as much as 8 3/4c a bushel. Liquidation owing to weakness in the New York stock market was the chief apparent reason.

Oats tumbled 5c in value. Pork dropped $1.25 a barrel in some cases, but lard and ribs held relatively steady. Final quotations were at nearly the bottom prices of the day, with July corn typical at $1.58 to $1.58 1/2 as compared with $1.66 3/8 to $1.66 1/2 at yesterday's finish. Uneasiness over the financial situation had been evident from the outset in the grain market but it was not until the session was almost over that values gave way in earnest. Selling orders came in a flood, and found the market without any adequate support.

American Steamer Wayhut Sinking

LONDON, April 21.—A report to the Lloyd Shipping Agency today says the American steamer Wayhut is sinking in latitude 47; degrees north, longitude 7 degrees west. A tug is on the way to the assistance of the distressed vessel.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The steamer Wayhut is a wooden vessel of 2551 tons gross owned by the shipping board and under operation of the Mallory Line in trade between Belgium, France and Gibraltar. She carries a crew of about 30 men, and was built in 1918. The last report received here of the steamer was when she left Huelva April 17 for Antwerp with a cargo of ore. The position given by the steamer is approximately 150 miles southwest of Brest.

PLOT FOR RISINGS AGAINST BRITAIN

Reported Revolt Planned for Canada, Ireland, Egypt and India in June

New York Said to be Headquarters of Conspiracy—Investigation

LONDON, April 21.—Constantly reiterated reports that a plot, having as its purpose simultaneous uprisings in Egypt, Ireland, India and Canada in June, is being fomented in New York, have impressed British officials to the extent of setting on foot an investigation.

The officers entered upon their work of investigation yesterday with the idea, it was stated, that if such a plot was on foot those behind it were irresponsible agitators who would not be intrusted with funds collected in the United States for the "Irish Republic" and who are without organiza-

ing ability or other substantial backing.

The reports received here have gone so far as to say that Irish sympathizers have left the United States for Canada, Egypt and India to plan a revolt in those countries.

In this connection British officials have taken cognizance of a statement of a member of parliament that he can prove that a soviet committee has been set up in South Wales and is awaiting the time of the "great revolution," when it hopes to assume power.

Murdered in Dublin

DUBLIN, April 21.—Detective Inspector Dalton was shot and killed yesterday in Mount Joy street when he and another detective of the Metropolitan police were attacked by several armed men. The other detective escaped injury but a woman was wounded by a bullet. The assassins made their escape.

To Answer Geddies

WASHINGTON, April 21.—H. J. Boland, secretary to President De Valera and a member of the parliament of the provisional Irish republic, issued a statement here yesterday on the Irish question in reply to views expressed by Sir Auckland Geddies.

"Sir Auckland Geddies," Mr. Boland said, "expresses the view that the British government wants now 'to place fairly and squarely on the shoulders of Irishmen in Ireland the constitutional responsibility of finding for themselves within the framework of the British empire the solution of their political differences.'"

"Ireland refuses to take any position within the framework of the British empire," he feels as the American colonists felt that the right of a people to liberty is a self-evident truth.

"Sir Auckland Geddies, in suggesting that all other peoples stand aside in this controversy, assumes the right to speak for Ireland, as well as Great Britain. The Irish people have repudiated Britain. The only people in a position to speak for Ireland in America are those officially designated by the Irish parliament. The British ambassador assumes to present the Irish question to the American people as a domestic matter of Great Britain. The Irish question is an international question."

STREET IS DANGEROUS PLACE TO PLAY

(Special to The Sun)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, April 21.—Declaring that parents are guilty of criminal negligence if they permit young children to run about the streets in their play, Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin has issued an appeal to children to observe four simple rules, designed to protect them from injury in automobile accidents.

The rules are:

1. Don't run into the street after a ball.
  2. Don't hitch on autos, wagons or trolley cars.
  3. Don't run into the street from behind wagons or autos.
  4. Before crossing a street, look first to the left, then to the right.
- "Investigation shows," Mr. Goodwin said today, "that lack of care in these four movements by children and young people is the most frequent cause of fatal accidents. But the primary cause is the lack of care on the part of parents in failing to warn their children against the ever-increasing dangers of the streets."
- Registrar Goodwin's attention was forcibly drawn to the matter by the fact that he was compelled to consider yesterday three cases in which children ranging in age from 2 to 10 years were killed in automobile accidents. Investigation has disclosed the fact that in recent accidents 35 per cent. of the victims have been children, and the registrar is convinced that increasing automobile traffic, together with the spring activities and games of children are largely responsible for this surprising percentage.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

MONEY BORROWING BY MUNICIPALITIES

The city of Lowell and other Massachusetts municipalities will be unable to borrow further money for projects authorized by special legislation in which a specified rate of interest has been stipulated until the legislature passes an act wiping out the specified rates and allows cities to borrow at whatever rate they can secure money.

The change in the money market whereby interest rates have risen from 4½ to 4% and in some cases 5 per cent. makes it impossible for city treasurers to borrow money at the old rates. These circumstances affect Lowell particularly as the $700,000 high school loan authorized in 1915 by the legislature specified that the money must be borrowed at 4½ per cent. The city has already borrowed $300,000 of that amount at the old rate. However, when it comes time to borrow the other $400,000 a higher rate of interest will have to be paid and this cannot be done until the legislature authorizes it. The special school loans authorized this year and last year are not affected because no rate of interest was specified by the legislature.

MARSHALL FOR FREE SPEECH AND PRESS

NEW YORK, April 21.—Vice President Marshall was applauded by members of the Associated Press at their annual meeting yesterday when he advocated freedom of speech and press as guaranteed by the constitution, but favored "soaking it to the fellow who causes trouble in the American republic by what he says."

He drew a direct question as to rights of free speech between those who were born in the country and others. Native born, he said, had the right to advocate alteration of the government by constitutional means

"Panicky" Conditions in Japan

HONOLULU, April 21.—"Panicky" conditions reign in Japan, according to a cablegram from Tokio received today by Nippu Jiji, a Japanese language newspaper here. Deflation of currency and rapid decline of stocks and prices of commodities with imports in excess of exports has brought about an alarming situation, the message said. The textile industry has fallen off, the yarn markets are slumping, industrial plants are discharging employees by the hundreds, many smaller plants are closing down, while others are operating on part time, and business of all kinds is coming to a standstill.

to socialism or a monarchy, but those who sought a haven in this country had no right to propose a change in the system of government.

The vice president was the chief speaker at the luncheon of the members in connection with the annual meeting, at which the retiring five directors were re-elected by acclamation, and four advisory board and auditing and nominating committees were chosen. He declared he had no grievance against the Associated Press for saying untrue things about him, but for not sending out anything at all about him.

EX-PREMIER CLEMENCEAU RETURNS TO PARIS

PARIS, April 21.—Former Premier Georges Clemenceau, who has been visiting Egypt for the past two months, arrived here today. He was alert and smiling, but avoided interviewers and would not be photographed.

He was met at the station by his brother Albert, his daughter, Madame Jacquemaitre, and his grandchildren. Many prominent men were present, among them being Captain Andre Tardieu, Louis Loucheur and Georges Leygues, members of M. Clemenceau's cabinet. With them he gaily discussed his trip and his illness, expressing his satisfaction in returning home. He left the station in an automobile, a large crowd cheering as he drove away.

COOLIDGE OPPOSES COAL SEIZURE

BOSTON, April 21.—The practice of coal carrying railroads of seizing coal in transit for their own use was criticized in a statement by Gov. Coolidge yesterday. He said he was seeking to fix some way of compelling the roads to store during the summer enough coal for their winter needs. "The New England roads," the governor said, "maintain great coal storage yards. The coal carrying roads, however, appear to find it more economical to seize coal destined for New England, thus saving dumping and loading charges. In some cases last winter they seized coal consigned to state charitable institutions with the result that some of them narrowly escaped freezing. Such seizures are entirely unlawful; they have no more right to take coal consigned to other parties than they have to take a washing off the line."

THIS SPRING TAKE

Hood's Sarsaparilla—A Good Blood-Purifying Tonic Medicine

It is a medicine in which the people can and do have entire confidence as pure, clean and safe.

All the claims made for it are justified by the testimony of the gratifying results attending its use in a multitude of cases of scrofula, eczema or salt rheum, psoriasis, blood-poisoning, catarrh and rheumatism, and of loss of appetite, that tired feeling, and low or run-down conditions common in the spring.

It is not adulterated; it is not misbranded, but honestly labelled. It originated in a physician's prescription and is recommended and used by many physicians today. It has a record of nearly 60 years of wonderful success.

CHARGES POLITICS ON SOLDIERS' BONUS

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Conflict between republicans and democrats on soldier relief legislation broke out in the house yesterday after Chairman Good of the appropriation committee had warned members that to put through a cash bonus would "bring down the wrath of 106,000,000 men, women and children."

"The greatest badge that the American soldier will wear," Representative Good declared, "will be the badge of sacrifice and not the badge of bonus."

The open fight over the legislation started when Representative Mondell of Wyoming, republican leader, in opposing "any wild enterprises costing many millions" charged that the democrats were attempting to foist an extravagant plan on the republican house for political reasons.

The statement of the republican leader brought a quick reply from Representative Gardner of Texas, the democratic whip, who attacked the republican sales tax plan for raising the needed revenues, declaring the republicans were planning "to place a tax on the backs and bellies of the people instead of taking it from the pockets of those best able to pay."

Another development in connection with bonus legislation was the calling by Representative Towner, Iowa, secretary of the republican caucus committee, of a party conference Thursday night to consider bonus legislation. His action was in response to a demand from two score republican members, who were said to be dissatisfied with the work of the house ways and means committee in framing the legislation.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Patriots day exercises were held at the Spalding house yesterday afternoon under the auspices of Molly Varnum chapter, D.A.R. Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins, D.D., gave an interesting talk on the principles of good citizenship, and a cantata entitled "The Landing of the Pilgrims" was sung by a group of young ladies with Mrs. Percy Williams as soloist and Mrs. Karl Perham, organist.

MAY BUILD ADDITION TO LOCAL ARMORY

A survey of the Lowell armory to determine the possibility of the erection of an addition to properly care for a battery of the 102nd Field Artillery to be recruited here, was made yesterday by Col. Frank S. Perkins, regimental commander. He was accompanied on his inspection tour by Capt. W. C. MacBrayne, who has been commissioned as commander of the Lowell unit.

There is a possibility that a tract of land in the rear of the armory, now owned by the Boston & Maine railroad, might be secured for an additional building. Just as soon as the battery is recruited, Col. Perkins will order 30 horses, guns and other material sent here to properly equip it. Capt. MacBrayne hopes to begin his recruiting campaign in about two weeks.

"I can use all three ovens and the broiler—at the same time"

"I've got roast in the coal oven, bread in that gas oven at the left, and now that I've lighted the broiler flame, this right-hand oven will be hot enough for my cake. I couldn't do all this baking with any other stove."

"You'd hardly believe such a small range could have so much oven space—6½ square feet without the racks, or 13 square feet with them. And from end to end my stove measures only forty-three inches!"

"THEN, in addition to the ovens, I can have nine kettles cooking all at once on the top, when I'm using both stoves—four on the coal griddles and five on the gas burners! Think how convenient that is when there's a big dinner to get—or at preserving time."

"Why, last summer I did an unbelievable amount of canning—all in one day—with this wonderful stove. While things that needed long cooking were simmering on the coal stove, I was canning the quickly cooked things on the gas."

"AND it's so nice to be able to use either stove separately. You know there's nothing like gas when you're in a hurry—and there are lots of times when a coal range is so much better."

"I discover new advantages in this Victory Crawford every day—it's come to be one of my most treasured possessions. Wait till you get one in your kitchen. Nothing could persuade you to part with it. It's a wonder."

CUMMINGS TO PRESIDE

Will Also Deliver Keynote
Address at Democratic
Convention

CHICAGO, April 21.—Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee yesterday was selected to preside as temporary chairman of the national convention at San Francisco, June 28, and deliver the keynote address which will enunciate the party policies in the forthcoming campaign.

The convention slate was formed at a luncheon at the Iroquois club, where the democratic chieftains listened to a speech in which their leader sounded what they said probably would be the main point of his "keynote address."

The republican party has lost its moral character, he declared, in launching a vigorous attack on the action of the majority in congress in defeating the peace treaty and League of Nations and particularly the methods by which control of the foreign relations committee was held by the republicans.

"The whole fight on the League of Nations dates back to a corrupt election in Michigan," he said, "and a convicted criminal is the thing upon which republican supremacy rests."

He was convinced that the people of the United States wanted the League of Nations. The republican congress had debated the peace treaty for eight months and had failed "to pass one constructive piece of legislation."

Turning to the war, he declared that "not chance but brains" won it and for this leadership he maintained the democratic party was entitled to credit.

Relations of democratic women to the party and their part in the direction of affairs would be decided by the San Francisco convention, the national executive committee decided today.

Today's session was said to be the first in which women have had representation on the national executive committee.

Plans for the convention virtually were completed yesterday with the selection of the temporary officers. Besides Mr. Cummings, these officers are: E. G. Hoffman, national committee chairman from Indiana, secretary; W. R. Hollister, Missouri, assistant secretary.

Objections to the San Francisco convention committee's arrangements and particularly to the size of the hall, were removed following the appearance before the committee on arrangements of Postmaster Charles Fay, chairman of the San Francisco committee and Isador B. Dockweiler, national committeeman from California, who explained the plans being made to handle the guests and the convention.

The executive committee and the committee on convention arrangements will meet at San Francisco early in June, it was decided.

Coincident with the general revival of industry in Belgium came a great increase in membership of trade unions there. From 120,714 in 1914 membership has risen to 613,500.

JAPAN DEMANDS CZECH TROOPS BE DISARMED

HARBIN, Manchuria, April 16 (By the Associated Press).—Japanese authorities in Manchuria have demanded that all Czech troops in this country be disarmed. This decision is a result of the recent clash between Czech and Japanese troops at Hallar, a village near the Siberian frontier.

Six trainloads of Czechs participated in the fighting, which resulted in 20 casualties in the Japanese ranks. The fight began over possession of a number of Russian prisoners who were being held by the Japanese, and it is said Chinese soldiers aided the Czechs in their endeavor to liberate the Russians. The Czechs used an armored car, which was captured by the Japanese, but the latter were forced to retreat before an attack of Chinese, who captured the Japanese barracks. During the melee the Russian prisoners escaped.

Residents of Hallar are fleeing to the city, fearing further trouble.

CHURCH SHEDS REPAIRED

As a result of a call for volunteer workers issued by the Unitarian Laymen's League of Billerica, the Unitarian church, which was damaged by the heavy snow in the course of the winter, were repaired Monday. The men gathered at the church in the forenoon and under the direction of Fred Stanley and T. Emery Smith tore down the most badly damaged sheds and repaired the others. During the noon hour dinner was served by the ladies of the Alliance under the direction of Mrs. E. F. Jenkins, Mrs. Elmo D. MacCurdy and Mrs. Ellis P. Colgate. After dinner speeches were in order, those entertaining with remarks being Charles H. James, John A. Richardson and Dr. Charles E. Hosmer. The men returned to work later and in the course of the afternoon finished their task.

EDUCATIONAL CLUB MEETING

After the transaction of business routine at the regular meeting of the Educational club yesterday an interesting program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Gardner. An amusing story of an outing by the club last summer and a number of advertisements were read by Mrs. White. "The Use and Abuse of the Telephone" was read by Mrs. Perham; poems were read by Mrs. Hartow. Future plans of the club were all outlined in an interesting prophecy read by Mrs. Ricker. Mrs. Corleu read a short story and Mrs. Gardner furnished comedy for the meeting by the reading of her paper. In a series of the old popular songs Mrs. Elizabeth Leggat was joined in chorus by all those present. A detailed account of the Rockefeller Foundation will be given at the meeting next Tuesday by Rev. Asa Reed Ditt.

ANAEMIA

MRS. HENRI CHAPDELAINE

I was in such a weakened condition that I had no courage for anything, and the best part of my time was passed in resting, as I was always tired. This state of affairs was brought on by the fact that I had to start working at a very early age. My grandmother, who had used RED PILLS and had great confidence in them, made me take them for a while and they did me an immense amount of good. In fact, after taking them regularly I am now in the best of health, have a good complexion and am happy to be feeling so good.

HONOR MEMORY OF
LANGLEY AND WRIGHT

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Naming of two aircraft auxiliaries of the American navy in memory of Professor Samuel P. Langley and Wilbur Wright, in recognition of their pioneer work in the evolution of heavier-than-air craft, was announced today by the navy department.

The aircraft tender to be launched at the Hog Island yards next week has been named Wright and the name of the collier Jupiter, now being converted into an aeroplane carrier, has been changed to Langley, the announcement said. "Orville Wright, brother of Wilbur Wright, has been asked to name the sponsor for the new tender."

WILL ORGANIZE
BOY SCOUT TROOP

For the purpose of organizing a Boy Scout troop a meeting of Centralville boys and young men will be held at the Centralville M. E. church this evening at 7 o'clock. Scout Executive Reid I. Ripley will make an address on scout work and will outline a program for the new troop.

The following committee, who will make arrangements for a lecture course, was elected at a business meeting of the Men's Brotherhood held in the church last evening: Rev. Karl P. Meister, pastor; Russell M. Fox and A. L. Hilser.

Of the total immigration over a period of several months, officials of the port of New York say, women and girls have formed not less than 60 per cent.

PLANNING HOME SEWING

Members of the community club of Chelmsford who assembled in the town hall yesterday afternoon were instructed in the practical planning of home sewing by Miss Emerson of Malden, one of the demonstrators of the Mid-dlesex county farm bureau. Mrs. W. K. Putney called the meeting to order and after a short preliminary business period Miss Emerson was introduced.

Before taking up the main subject Miss Emerson spoke of the institution of a canning course at Amherst and gave a short talk regarding it. In her main demonstration she spoke of the practical planning of home sewing, the adjustment of patterns to fit the individual, the cutting out of the work and other details. At the next meeting on May 4 all those present were requested to have ready a dress, cut and basted to be used in an exercise in fitting. Miss Emerson will consider at that meeting the different ways of finishing and the so-called "thrifty" edges.

The average buying power of the American farmer has increased in the last four years from $1600 to $3400 a year, while that of the city man still remains approximately at $900 a year.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION CLASS BANQUETED

The Sacred Heart parish has for many years enjoyed an enviable reputation for the excellence of the many social functions held under the auspices of its parishioners, and a notable feature of the spirit which animated the members of each committee appointed to arrange for some new social activity is their earnest desire to make the success of each entertainment surpass that of its predecessor.

It such desire inspired the members of the Sacred Heart Social club in their arrangements for last evening's banquet to the Massachusetts University Extension class, they were certainly realized. Everything that could be desired to lend attraction to the occasion had been minutely attended to. The spacious parochial school hall was tastefully decorated and presented a charming appearance. Rich streamers, representing the class colors, were suspended throughout the main hall, while the stage was hidden amid an array of choice plants with a background of hunting from which hung in bold relief the letters in gold, "H.N.C." On one side of the club's motto a large portrait of Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., the pastor of the church, was suspended, and on the other a striking portrait of the energetic spiritual director of the Holy Name club, Rev. William F. Mahan, O.M.I.

The Holy Name Social club, organized with a handful of members, but three short years ago, has from its very infancy played a prominent part in the many social functions of the Sacred Heart parish. Through the efforts of the spiritual director, Father Mahan, O.M.I., and the encouragement and co-operation of Father Flynn, O.M.I., and the fathers of the parish, an opportunity for educational advancement was presented, and in the success of the University Extension course, brought to a magnificent close last evening, when during the post-prandial exercises the members of the class were presented their diplomas, the dreams of these good fathers, who are ever anxious to promote the best interests of their parishioners, became a glorious reality.

At 8 o'clock 150 ladies and gentlemen sat down to an excellent turkey dinner served by Lydon, the caterer. Moroy's orchestra rendered several selections that lent an atmosphere of warmth to the splendor of the scene. Mr. George O'Brien availed himself of an early opportunity to step forward, and in a neat speech on behalf of the members of the graduating class, he presented Mr. Foley a Knights of Columbus charm, as a slight token of appreciation from the class for the painstaking care he exercised in conducting the class throughout the winter months. Mr. Foley, though taken wholly by surprise, accepted the gift and in a few well chosen words, thanked the members of the class for their kindness. After the many good things on the menu had been done full justice to, Mr. Charles Foley, as toastmaster of the occasion, reviewed the work of the Massachusetts University Extension class, and complimented the members on their faithfulness to classes and ultimate excellent showing.

Rev. John P. Flynn, O.M.I., upon being introduced by Toastmaster Foley, as "our beloved pastor," was given a hearty ovation. Fr. Flynn expressed the pleasure it gave him to be a participant in the exercises of the evening, and heartily congratulated Fr. Mahan, the spiritual director of the club; Mr. Dallas, of Boston, the head of education, and Mr. Foley, instructor of the local class, for the magnificent success of the University Extension class in the Sacred Heart parish. It is possible, he said, that next fall, in addition to the men's classes, classes for ladies will also be formed, and with a growing interest and the co-operation of all, like the little acorn that grows into a large spreading tree, great progress may be reached, and great things accomplished toward the educational advancement of the members. Everything will be done, every opportunity afforded, to promote the success of these classes.

Extraordinary educational advantages are offered here under the guidance of the state, and one should not fail to take advantage of them. Mr. Dallas, of the state board of education was the next speaker. He said it gave him great pleasure to receive an invitation from Father Mahan to come and present the diplomas to the University Extension class of the Sacred Heart club. He expected tonight to find the members in a class room, and was very pleasantly surprised at the wonderful reception that had been planned for the occasion, and the beautiful repast which all present enjoyed.

Last winter there were 300 classes in the Massachusetts University Extension course, and of that number, embracing the entire state, the Sacred Heart class of Lowell, is the banner class. It holds the largest percentage for attendance meetings, as well as the largest percentage to continue to completion. In speaking of those classes we judge their merit by the success of the close, and in this you have certainly showed faithfulness. Mr. Foley visited the office in Boston last week with some of the class papers, and the clerks upon looking over the papers at once became enthusiastic, and remarked to Mr. Foley, whom they did not know, that the Lowell class must surely have had a good instructor. It is true, and while the clerks didn't know that "was Mr. Foley who brought the papers, they couldn't refrain from favorable comment upon them. Last winter was a very hard, trying winter, but the Sacred Heart class seemed to be able to surmount even the weather difficulties, and so show such a wonderful record of achievement.

There is no personal credit due to me, continued Mr. Dallas, for the success of this class. It is my duty to arrange those classes when called upon, and to organize them if a sufficient number of students agree on the subject to be taken up, and arrange the necessary number of classes. When I first came to Lowell I was rather critical and somewhat severe in explaining what was required of the members of an extension class, and the reason was, when I talked in the club rooms, and saw around me so many forms of amusement to divert the mind from concentration to study, I was inclined to discourage the idea, as I feared it would be difficult to continue such a class of education to successful completion. I am glad tonight to see that you have dispelled all doubts as to the sincerity of your desire to advance along the course laid down by the promoters of those classes.

The commonwealth of Massachusetts is expending large sums of money each year for the maintenance of those university extension classes, and it is a pleasure to see that the Holy Name Social club has been the first club of its kind in Lowell to take advantage of the opportunities for educational advancement thus presented. There is no reason why next year an advanced class in mathematics could not be formed, as well as a class similar to this year. Other courses along practical lines will speedily follow. There is no reason why the young ladies too should not take advantage of the opportunities offered in university extension classes. Especially is this applicable to young ladies working in business offices. To such a course in business English or commercial correspondence would be highly beneficial.

The governor has just signed a check for $165,000 to cover the expense of these classes as well as correspondence courses conducted under university extension supervision. If the demand for a ladies' class here materializes, such a class will be formed in the fall. These classes are not strictly confined to the young, the older people too may take advantage of them.

Mr. Dallas here cited interesting cases to show that men of mature age even have, through strict application to study, advanced themselves to leadership in business and the professions. The speaker again congratulated the members of the class upon their success, and expressed the hope that next year, not alone one, but two and perhaps three courses would be conducted by the Holy Name Social club.

Rev. William F. Mahan, O.M.I., upon being introduced as "the man who organized the class," was enthusiastically received.

He said he appreciated the warmth of the reception, and the kind introduction by the toastmaster. He was pleased to have a part in organizing the class, but to the pastor, Father Flynn, is due the credit for the success which the class has attained. Father Flynn is the man who stood behind the project from its organization, and lent his co-operation and hearty support to everything that was conducive to the success of the class. The announcement that the pastor will provide more commodious quarters in the old school for the classes next year will no doubt be received with pleasure by the members present. It is my wish, and the wish of your pastor that several classes be conducted next year, and so uphold the reputation we enjoy amongst our friends even outside of Lowell, which is, "that nothing in the city of Lowell can equal the Sacred Heart parish in the successful accomplishment of anything and everything it undertakes."

After a few select numbers by the orchestra, Mr. Fred Sharkey delighted with vocal selections.

Mr. Dallas then presented diplomas to the following members of the Massachusetts University Extension class of the Sacred Heart Social club: John J. Ahearn, Walter Brown, James Burns, John Conolly, William Connors, Lawrence Conidine, Francis Donaghue, William Finnegan, Edward Finnegan, James Keenan, Herbert Kelly, Martin Kennedy, James Kane, James Kelleher, Frank Lannon, Stephen McNamara, Joseph McNamara, Joseph Miller, Joseph Garrity, John Healey, Harry Heelan, Thomas Healey, Houlton, Hartley, Frank Hearn, Paul Houlton, Joseph Jennings, John McGilgig, Martin McNally, Henry McFarland, George O'Brien, Arthur McLean, John Tully, Frank Ward, P. Alton Walsh.

After the presentation of diplomas, the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" brought to a close one of the most enjoyable evenings yet held under the auspices of the Holy Name club.

For the excellence of last evening's program a meed of unstinted praise is due the members of the banquet committee, Messrs. James Keenan, P. A. Walsh, Thomas Healey and Rev. William F. Mahan, O.M.I.

FOR PEACE IN CHINA

Plan to Organize United Parliament in Shanghai—End of Canton Government

SHANGHAI, April 16 (By the Associated Press).—Dominant elements of the northern and southern Chinese governments will merge and organize a united parliament, probably in this city, in a short time, said Wu Ting Fang, administrative leader and minister of foreign affairs of the southern government, on arriving here today. A constitution and peace program will be drafted at the meeting, he said, thus terminating the Canton government, which, he declared, has ceased to function.

Sun Yat Sen, first president of the Chinese republic and leader of the constitutionalists, and Tang Shao-Yi, former premier of the Peking government, are here and 30 of the 300 members of the Canton parliament have arrived. Proxies held by the leaders of the delegation give them the voting power of a majority of the southern government's administrative council of seven, and they will carry out the projects which have been negotiated by Sun Yat Sen with Tuan Chi Jul and other Peking chiefs.

Wu Ting Fang favors the consortium in which Japan, the United States, France and Great Britain would play a dominant role in the financing of Chinese undertakings, but opposes loans now pending. He says he wants internal peace first, and then foreign supervision of expenditures. He sympathizes with the Chinese students who have been demonstrating against the loans to China and declares problems arising from the disposition of the province of Shantung should be settled by the League of Nations.

Vigorous Opposition
SHANGHAI, March 17.—Vigorous opposition to all projects for further foreign loans to the present Peking government is being continued by the Shanghai branch of the National Students' union and the Shanghai Students' union, representing all the Chinese students and many of the educators of the Shanghai district.

Refusal of American, British and French banks to carry through the proposed loan of $25,000,000 to the government, has led the two organizations to address to the leading American, French and British banking houses in China messages expressing hoop skirts were worn by those who first asked the druggist, and insisted on having the genuine Golden Medical Discovery put up by Dr. Pierce over fifty years ago. Dress has changed very much since then! But Dr. Pierce's medicines contain the same dependable ingredients. They are standard today just as they were fifty years ago and never contained alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach and blood cannot be surpassed by any remedy today.

Every spring most people feel "all out of sorts"—their vitality is at a low ebb—the blood becomes surcharged with poison!

The best spring medicine and tonic is called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts vim, vigor, vitality into the blood. Try it. This is what folks say about it:

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—"Some years ago I was completely tired-out, nervous, run-down and unable to perform my ordinary household duties. Both my father and brother had used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a spring tonic and blood purifier and they both urged me to try it. I bought a bottle and before I had finished it I felt like a new woman. I have been well and strong ever since. I have always spoken highly of it."—Mrs. WILLIAM ELLSWORTH, 24 Pearne Street gratitude for the decision reached. Messages of the same tenor were also forwarded to the ministries, of the three countries in Peking.

The message addressed to the banks and copied in the messages sent to the ministries, says in part:

"You have proved your true friendship to the people of China in refusing to make the loan, which would only be used to keep the country in Civil war, and to aid the military chiefs in their despicable efforts to enrich themselves at the expense of the masses. ## Packing House Manager Arrested

NEW YORK, April 21.—The fourth arrest in a few days of Brooklyn managers of big packing houses for alleged profiteering came today when Oliver H. Saunders, manager for the Cudahy Packing Co., was taken into custody charged with selling beef at excessive prices.

For Outdoor Dance Pavilion

that there already is a band stand there and that the floor could be extended toward the Highland street slope. Hartford operates its dance hall every pleasant evening during the summer months, Sundays excepted, with a 40-piece band to provide the music.

It is the tentative idea of the special committee now agitating the plan in Lowell that band music should also be used here. Not only would such music be excellent for dancing, but also, it would afford thousands of people an opportunity to hear splendid music each evening. The Summer street slope would make an admirable "balcony" and in this way the pavilion would not only provide enjoyment for dancers, but also would soon become a community recreational center.

It has been estimated that a pavilion of the size required would cost approximately $5000 to build and this seems out of the question this summer, but the committee hopes that public sentiment will so thoroughly endorse the plan that arrangements for it will be made in the park department budget of 1921.

The committee also heard several reports from Miss Emily Skilton last evening relative to land adjacent to the boulevard bath-house and bathing in the Concord river. She reported that objectionable billboards near the boulevard should be removed and that she would talk this matter over with the man who owns the property.

She also brought word that Mayor Thompson approves of the plan to place "No Trespass" signs along the Concord river banks to prohibit nude bathing there. The committee addressed a communication to the board of directors, asking them to make such a request to the superintendent of police.

The committee again took up the question of the erection of some sort of protection around the piers of the new Pawtucket bridge. Miss Skilton said the mayor has promised this will be attended to immediately and there is money available for this work. Children play around these piers, it is said, greatly endangering their lives, and the committee seeks the placing of a wire fence there to provide for their protection.

It was brought to the attention of the committee that in many districts of the city children are forced to play in the public streets and that they are in constant danger while so doing. It was suggested that something might be done along the line of closing certain side streets in congested districts to traffic between the hours of 6 and 8 p. m., thus allowing children to play there in safety.

Asks for Treaty Changes

Furthermore, the army would not accept an order for its dissolution. Framework of Active Army.

The note further requests that Germany be allowed to retain the entire general staff and corps of officers, which means the entire framework of the active army. It proposes that the forces she is permitted to maintain be divided as follows:

Twelve divisions of infantry, with a complement of artillery; three divisions of cavalry, five special brigades, composed each of two regiments of infantry and two groups of artillery. The note also asks for one battalion of heavy artillery for each division of infantry; 100 airplanes, divided into eight groups, and four special companies of troops for railway work.

Two other German notes were handed to the foreign office at the same time. The first agreed to the disbandment of the civil guards as demanded by the allies. It has already been made public.

The second note embodied requests that the reichswehr force in the neutral zone should be fixed according to the number of units and that Germany be allowed to have 11 batteries of artillery instead of two in the neutral zone.

Campaign of Falsehood
SAN REMO, April 21 (By the Associated Press).—Premier Nitti of Italy,

speaking today with reference to that country's policy toward Germany, Austria and Jugoslavia and also upon the financial situation of Italy, charged that a campaign of falsehood was being conducted by unknown persons against his country.

"The dissemination of false news detrimental to Italy is an abominable thing," Premier Nitti said. "It is a veritable campaign of libellous falsehoods. By whom is it promoted? Many telegrams which claim to have come from Italy prove to have been sent from neighboring countries by persons who have not lived in Italy and who are acting in the interests of unknown parties."

Balfour at San Remo

SAN REMO, April 21 (By the Associated Press).—Arthur J. Balfour, British member of the League of Nations' executive council, who has been acting as the presiding officer at the council's sessions, arrived in San Remo today to represent the League of Nations in discussions with the supreme council regarding the mandate for Armenia which the league had been asked to assume.

The discussion is expected to turn upon the question of funds and military forces, of which the league has none. Erzerum, which has been selected as the capital of Armenia, is the home city of Mustafa Kemal, the Turkish nationalist leader, and he is a deputy of that city in the Turkish parliament. He is reported to have 15,000 troops in Erzerum which the League of Nations, under the mandate, would have the task of turning out.

BIG BUSINESS RUSH AT POSTOFFICE

Although the "bottleneck" railroad strike has caused a tremendous amount of parcel post business, which would ordinarily be handled by freight and express companies, to be diverted to the Lowell postoffice, Postmaster Meehan said today that the local office is at present entirely free from congestion and the unprecedented volume of mail matter is being handled with efficiency and despatch.

It has been necessary to put seven extra vehicles into service to care for the increased amount of parcel post, he said, and also employ many substitute carriers, all of which has caused extra expense to the department. The postmaster believes, however, that he will have little difficulty in coping with the situation.

MOTORCYCLIST FINED IN POLICE COURT

Charged with operating a motorcycle without having a license in his possession, Ernest J. Barber of Nashua, N. H., operator of the machine which struck and slightly injured Miss Mary B. Maguire of 51 Butler avenue, in Merrimack Square yesterday noon, was fined $10 by Judge Fisher in the municipal court today.

Barber said that he owned a motorcycle license, but had unintentionally left it in Nashua when he embarked on his trip to the Spindle City. Miss Maguire stepped directly in front of his machine, he said, and it was impossible to avoid striking her.

For the Thin and Bloodless!

The thin and bloodless with pale cheeks, white lips and frail angular physique, of this community have been much interested in the reports of physicians and others concerning the effectiveness of the treatment for increasing the red and white corpuscles of the blood, the adding color and weight with its accompanying vigor to the depleted system. A gain of from 10 to 20 pounds is not at all unusual where the treatment is regularly used, for several months, while the color improves almost from the beginning. Most good apothecaries supply it in the form of three grain hypo-phosphate tablets, put up in sealed packets with directions for home use. Its action aids assimilation and absorption of the food eaten very promptly.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. entering New York and Jersey City. With passenger service virtually normal again, the roads are concentrating efforts on clearing up the freight tieup and hope to be operating normally by the end of the week, it was said. Claims of strike leaders that 70 per cent. of the strikers still were out, were denied.

Work on the construction of a new sanitary station on the South common west of the bandstand and toward Thorndike street was begun yesterday by Contractor Frederick F. Meloy.

An alarm from box 138 at 10:45 o'clock this forenoon, was for a slight blaze on the roof of a blacksmith shop in Ward street. At 9:40, the department was summoned by telephone to 25 Wyman street, for a chimney fire.

Members of the Washington club played host to their brethren of the Highland club in the Washington club quarters in Prescott street last evening and members of both organizations spent a most enjoyable time. Professor George I. Carter, billiard expert and instructor of the B.A.A., gave an exhibition. Games of pool, billiards and bridge whilst were enjoyed and a buffet luncheon served.

The inter-church world movement got under way here yesterday with a meeting in Keith's theatre during the noon hour. Rev. A. Stanley Beale of the Highland Congregational church, as chairman of the committee, presided. The speakers were Rev. John F. Sala of Buffalo, N. Y., and William C. cal attention and the forces of physicians and nurses available locally are inadequate to cope with the situation. Tents and other temporary structures must be erected for numerous families whose homes were destroyed and a shortage of food is predicted as a result of the destruction of barns and warehouses, coupled with the complete obstruction of communication roads. The storm apparently struck in the rich farming belt near Bay Springs, Jasper county, Mississippi, and moved northeast across the remainder of the state and into Tennessee. The deaths in Mississippi already reported total 118; in Alabama 45 and in Tennessee 3.

15 Dead in Jasper County

LAUREL, Miss., April 21.—Fifteen persons are known to have been killed and property valued at a million dollars destroyed in the tornado which swept through Jasper county, 15 miles north of Laurel, yesterday.

The two main buildings and the boys' dormitory of the Jasper county agricultural high school at Bay Springs, were demolished. Professor Bryant, one of the principals, and Miss Moore, music teacher, were killed.

Red Cross Sends Tents

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—The Gulf division of the American Red Cross has sent a carload of tents, blankets and medical supplies, together with nurses, workers and physicians to Meridian, to aid in relief work among the storm sufferers.

ROAD OIL FOR THE STREET DEPARTMENT

Owing to the fact that Purchasing Agent Edward H. Foye notified the Alden Sparks Co. of Boston that it would receive the contract to supply the local street department with road oil for the present season despite the fact that Joseph J. Galvin of Boston submitted a lower bid, the municipal council will be obliged to give the contract to the former concern, according to City Solicitor William D. Kegan.

Mr. Foye notified the Alden Sparks Co. of their success in view of the fact that Mr. Galvin failed to send a certified check with his bid which was considerably below that of the other concern. The specifications said no bid would be considered unless accompanied by a check. However, Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy of the street department feels that he should have been consulted before any firm was told who was to get the contract.

The contract is now in the office of the Alden Sparks Co. and will be returned to Lowell next Friday.

Commissioner Murphy told the municipal council at its meeting this morning the circumstances of the case and said that the only thing to do would be to have the contract approved as soon as it was returned. Accordingly, the council will meet Friday morning to take action on the matter.

This morning's meeting was called at 11:05 with all members present.

A requisition from the street department asking that the purchasing agent be authorized to buy 100,000 paving blocks of varying dimensions, was approved.

The petition of Fortunato Heroux that a curbstone be laid in front of his premises at 1 Bowers street was referred to Commissioner Murphy.

The petition of Margaret P. Shay for a garage license at 155 Sixth street was held for a hearing on May 11.

The council then voted to confirm sewer assessments against abutters on the following streets in accordance with a report from the engineer's department: Pineview avenue, $77.21; Plymouth street, $296.10; Princeton street, $262.90; Riverside and Deland streets, $733.32; Staple street, $250.25.

Adjourned at 11:15 until Friday at 10 a. m.

ELECTRICIANS ARE STILL ON STRIKE

The strike of the journeymen electricians of this city, which started yesterday morning, is still on and according to the president of the Master Electricians, L. A. Derby, there is no sign of a settlement in sight just at present, although the master electricians are willing to meet the strikers and talk matters over with them.

The journeymen electricians sent a communication to the master electricians April 16, requesting a new scale of wages to become effective April 26, to wit, that the journeymen receive a minimum wage of $1 an hour and the helpers $2 cents an hour. According to Mr. Derby, there was not the slightest warning of a strike contained in the letter and the walk-out yesterday morning was a big surprise to the employers.

"We are willing to meet the strikers," said Mr. Derby this morning, "and see if we can agree on a new scale of wages, for we do not think their request is fair, as we believe the electricians should have a uniform scale of wages all over the city, corporations included. Prior to April 16 there was some talk about more wages for the journeymen and helpers and the master electricians and employees met and agreed upon a new arrangement, but the union refused to sign it and in reply sent the communication requesting $1 an hour for journeymen and $2 cents for helpers. We are now waiting for the journeymen to ask for a conference and are ready to meet them at any time."

ARTHUR SULLIVAN GUEST OF HONOR

Arthur Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Sullivan of Waverly avenue, who has just returned to Lowell after serving since the beginning of the world war with the United States naval forces, was the guest of honor at a reception tendered by a number of his friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Donohoe, 405 High street, Monday evening.

Mr. Sullivan was a student at Harvard when the war began and immediately after his graduation he joined the navy. He was rapidly promoted to ensign and served in that capacity during the greater part of the conflict. He was formally welcomed home by Leo P. King, master of the Elson grammar school, on behalf of those present, and Mr. Sullivan responded fittingly. An enjoyable entertainment program included solos by John Corcoran of Cambridge, Harry Conroy of Dorchester and James Carroll of Waverly, Conn., and piano solos by Miss Marie Palmer of Brookline. Games and dancing were enjoyed and a buffet luncheon served.

NEW GREEK SCHOOL.

All architects who have entered the competition in submitting plans for the erection of the new Greek school will be notified, within a day or two, that all plans and sketches must be in the hands of the secretary of the Greek Orthodox community on a certain date to be mentioned in that notice. It is expected that all details will be cleared up in about a week so that the school committee of the Greek community may be called into session for the purpose of awarding the contract.

May Have Overall Brigade

denim might not be amies. For one thing, conductors and motormen—as well as all other thrifty Lowellites who propose to flock to the standard of General Overall—should bear in mind that even the best of overalls sometimes shrink. Therefore it would perhaps be well to get them a wee bit long at first. It would also be well to avoid getting caught in any showers, for should the overalls get soaked on the first wearing it might be found impossible to get out of 'em when one's day's work is done. And no one wants to sleep in overalls, no matter how intent one is on taking a fall out of the high cost of living.

Another reason for getting the overalls a little long at the bottom is that in case some other part of the garment wears out it may be possible to utilize the extra length for patches, which will be another knockout blow to L. C. I.

Now as to the crease, which is of course of paramount importance to members of the overall brigade to be. The best authorities on the subject agree unanimously that the crease in overalls should be in front—the same as in one's trousers.

The stripes and buttons now in vogue on street carmen's uniforms are very easily transferred to the overalls—and this is just what is going to happen, according to information at hand.

Whether or no the officials of the local street railway will fall in line with the men and array themselves in overall garb has not yet been definitely decided upon. Some of the men "highness in joints is improving all the time, entirely without pain. Used over time and is gaining strength; stiffened Osteopathy, Electricity, Massage, etc., without any benefit.

"I feel that 'URICISOL' has entirely relieved my son of all suffering, and will be most happy to have you refer any one to me regarding this case of my son."

Mr. Moulton resides at 145 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. His experience with his son's case is substantially the story in thousands of cases. "Uricisol" has truly struck the shackles from thousands of rheumatic sufferers.

And there is nothing magic about its cures. "Uricisol" follows the accepted opinions of the world's greatest authorities on rheumatism. "Uricisol" is simply a saline solution combined with alkalies. It dissolves Uric Acid and eliminates it from the system.

Uric Acid, of course, results from fermentation of the waste materials in the system. Sudden chilling from drafts, dampness and cold causes the precipitation of the acid into crystals which lodge in the joints, tissues and mucous membranes.

Mrs. Feeney, another chronic sufferer from rheumatism who knows the relief which Uricisol brings, is in the city this week at Dows' Drug Store on the Square, and will be glad to talk with anyone who desires to hear of her experience.

"Uricisol" rectifies this condition, simply and swiftly. Write the URICISOL CHEMICAL COMPANY, 46 Cornhill, Boston, for valuable literature on how Uricisol helps rheumatism. "Uricisol" is on sale everywhere, $1.25 a bottle—Adv.

Fatigue - the greatest enemy you have in your work today

EVERY year 800,000 serious industrial accidents occur in the United States. Authorities who have investigated these accidents claim that 83% of them would have been prevented had the worker not been fatigued.

Throughout the world tremendous efforts are being made to prevent the man who works with hand or brain from becoming over-fatigued.

Frederick W. Taylor, the noted engineer, has devoted years in planning work for the prevention of unnecessary fatigue. Frank B. Gilbreth, whose books "Fatigue Study" and "Motion Study" are landmarks, is constantly studying new ways to eliminate fatigue. The Society of Industrial Engineers has recently appointed a committee of noted men to study the same important problem.

New machine in England to test fatigue

To aid in the study of the problem, an ingenious machine has been devised in England. This machine makes it possible by repeated and comparative tests to determine in many cases the state of fatigue of the individual.

Dr. Winifred Cullis, Professor of Physiology at the London School of Medicine, during her recent visit to America, announced the results which had been obtained with its use. One of the most important results established is that men and women in various ways waste their precious energy.

It is because of this waste that they become fatigued and are listless in their daily tasks. This is why so many fail, and meet defeat.

One of the greatest of these wastes comes from pounding away your energy on hard, modern pavements. Every step you take with hard leather heels or "dead" rubber heels acts as a hammer blow to your nervous system. If you are a person of average activity you take 8,000 steps a day. The constant repetition of these jolts and jars tends to exhaust your energy—to produce that tired-out feeling you so often experience.

Remove this cause of fatigue

You can do much to prevent this condition. You can eliminate the shocks of pounding hard heels on still harder pavements. O'Sullivan's Heels absorb these jolts and jars.

In early China and Persia there was a form of punishment known as the Bastinado, which consisted of light blows on the feet of the victim with a small stick or lath of bamboo. The blows were scarcely more than taps but the constant repetition of the tapping reduced the strongest man to nervous exhaustion.

To secure the resiliency, the springiness of O'Sullivan's Heels, the highest grades of rubber are blended by a special formula. With this blend of live, springy rubber are "compounded" the best toughening agents known. The "compound" is then "cured" or baked under high pressure.

This is why O'Sullivan's Heels absorb the jolts and jars of walking. The same process that makes O'Sullivan's Heels resilient gives them their great durability. O'Sullivan's Heels outlast three pairs of leather heels—they often outlast two pairs of ordinary rubber heels.

Stop pounding away your energy. Go to your shoe repairer today and have O'Sullivan's Heels put on your shoes.

With every step on hard heels you are pounding away your energy.

Absorb the shocks that tire you out

THE HOUSING PROBLEM

Daily the housing problem is becoming more serious and yet so far as Lowell or indeed Massachusetts is concerned, there is no remedy in sight. In New York city there is a big fight on against rent profiteers and from all accounts there has been ample ground for complaint on the part of the tenants. A "Tenant Right League" has been formed to combat the profiteers; but thus far very little has been accomplished. Stringent laws against rent extortion have been enacted; but yet the situation is not improved.

Rent sharks go about purchasing property and evicting the tenants unless they pay more. We have had examples of this in our own city, especially in reference to the stores; but we understand the practice is now being applied to tenement property. Here is how it works:

"A speculator buys the property, paying in cash only enough to bind the bargain, raises the rents all around, and on the new earning power seeks a purchaser. The latter is also a speculator. He gives the rents another upward shove, capitalizes the increased earning power and sells out."

When property is turned over and over several times, the rent being radically increased each time, the tenants are made to pay an amount far above what would be considered fair. This form of profiteering can flourish in cities where tenants cannot find a place of any description into which to move. But the shortage is general throughout the United States. It is the result of general neglect of the ordinary building operations during the war and since. It is estimated that the cost of our building enterprises in the United States in any one year, would be about four billion dollars; and we have certainly fallen behind a whole year's work in this respect, so that it will require several years in which to catch up.

Very few dwellings are being built today as a result of the extraordinary cost of labor and material. The prices are practically prohibitive. All the building operations in our city today, apart from city and corporation work, is confined to garages or minor repair jobs. Various measures of relief have been proposed, but none has thus far helped to any great extent. Housing committees are chosen, but unless they are able to build houses and let them at a fair rent, they can accomplish little. It has been suggested that the state should extend credit at low rates of interest for the building of homes. It is also proposed that cities and towns be empowered to acquire or hold and let adjoining lands and, if necessary, carry on housing operations.

The British solution is to subsidize the building industry, allowing about $600 on every workman's home completed within the next year. The banks have become somewhat wary on loaning a large percentage of the property value on mortgages, lest from a slump, in values which must come within the next four years, they should lose heavily even on taking over the property.

It seems that a housing committee might do much in Lowell by adopting some plan under which old, unused and even dilapidated property might be repaired and rented. There are probably fifty or seventy-five buildings in Lowell that might be made suitable for occupancy by this means. This, it seems, would be a fit matter for the Chamber of Commerce to consider.

WHO'S HERBERT HOOVER?

The subjoined editorial from the Fall River News states very plainly, and in our opinion very accurately, the true American view of the candidacy of Herbert Hoover for the presidency of the United States. The Fall River News is a staunch republican paper although it is not shouting for any particular candidate. It does, however, favor the choice of a candidate who will have no foreign entanglements. It was to avoid this danger that our constitution provided that none but citizens born in the United States or under the flag abroad, will be eligible for the office of president. Where a young man has resided for twenty-three years of his life in a foreign country, which happens to be the chief rival of the United States in naval, military and naval power, the objection to his candidacy is almost as great as if he had been born in that country. But it does not hold in law. It should, however, be an objection sufficient to defeat any aspirant to the office of president. The people who have been shouting for Mr. Hoover should read the following editorial:

"Who knows where 'Red House, Horton street, is? Well, it is not in the United States, but in London, England, and for many years Herbert Hoover lived there. He was listed for years in 'Who's Who in the World' as living in 'Red House,' London, and as 'partner, Berwick, Moreland and Co., mine operators, London.' 'Who's Who in America' for 1914-15 carried Herbert Hoover as living in 'Red House' with business interests centered in London. Yet we are asked to send this man to the White House, with a record of 23 years residence in England, with all his business interests English, in order to 'save' the United States!"

"Letters have been sent out broadcast over the land to business men asking them to 'demand' the nomination and election of Mr. Hoover as president. Just why anyone should 'demand' the nomination of this anglicized American is not clear. Mr. Hoover spent American money for foreigners with great energy, but so far as can be learned, he was never at any time concerned with American affairs."

"If we must look to Hoover for salvation from the many ills that beset us, then we must confess that the American system of government is a failure. For if we, with our population of over one hundred millions, have failed to develop any man into presidential calibre, certainly something is fundamentally wrong with our way of doing things. If we must take a man hailing from 'Red House, London' as our leader, then that government, of, by and for the people, in which Lincoln had such confidence, has ceased to function as it should."

"Lord Grey, Colonial House, the New York World and the Saturday Post to the contrary notwithstanding, the American people will not rise en masse and 'demand' that this modern Moses lead them out of the wilderness. There are many men, Americans, who know and understand their country because they have lived their lives here, who are capable of serving the nation as president. The people will select one of these to be their leader and Mr. Hoover, with his friends so insolently demanding he be given, to 'save' the country. There will be no life of Herbert Hoover written to which the title 'From the Red House to the White House' can be given."

INVITING IMMIGRANTS

While America is losing manpower because immigration has fallen off and emigration increased, other nations are deliberately adopting policies that are attracting workers.

By stationing agents in the principal European cities and by paying bonuses to steamship offices for selling passage tickets, some South American countries, Canada and Australia are aiding immigration.

South America is busy developing industries that will provide employment for foreigners. Brazil and Argentina are specially active.

New Zealand has arranged with the shipping companies for reduced fares for desirable immigrants.

Numbers of Italians, Spaniards and French are going to Argentina, where there are many of these nationalities already located. Free land is being given to newcomers. Naturalized citizens are exempted from military service for 10 years. This is a distinct inducement to immigrants from "compulsory service" countries of Europe.

Brazil is not only paying passage for immigrants, but takes care of them on arrival and transports them free to their destination, provides them with tools and seeds, and supplies them with free medical care for themselves and families.

Chile is inducing immigration by giving 100 acres and implements to each immigrant.

The countries to the south of the United States, together with Australia and New Zealand, seem destined to take the place that the United States has held for the past hundred and fifty years as the "land of hope" for the immigrant.—N. E. A.

Instead of offering inducement to immigrants, we have set up a barrier against those who do not speak our language. No argument is required to show the absurdity of this policy, at a time when as a result of the shortage of farm labor, there is danger of a great decrease in the area under cultivation this year as compared with 1919. With the cost of living still soaring, every effort should be made to produce abundant crops this year; but with farmers unobtainable even at $5 per day, the situation has become serious. The policy adopted by other countries, as indicated in the above editorial, would serve the best interests of the United States at the present time. This literacy test so-called will turn the stream of emigration towards the South American republics with the result that they will receive the benefit of the influx that would otherwise have come to our shores.

GEDDES ON IRELAND

"There is no quarrel between England and Ireland," is the statement with which Sir Auckland Geddes introduces himself to the American public as British ambassador to the United States. Strange that he should come here with a statement which all the world knows to be false. He appeals to the world to let Ireland work out her own salvation under the so-called home rule bill which, he says, England is going to give her.

Sir Auckland Geddes knows full well that what he calls a home rule measure is unworthy of the name, that it is on the contrary a measure designed to partition Ireland on religious lines and place the majority of about four-fifths of the people under the unionist minority constituting about one-fifth.

This minority is regarded as a sort of British garrison in Ireland, always ready to side with British politicians such as Lloyd George and Bonar Law in opposition to the just claims of the Irish people.

The plan of the so-called home rule bill is to give the minority and majority each a local legislature and make provision whereby, if both agree, they can establish a central council to represent all of Ireland. And if such council should be established, the minority is to have equal representation with the majority and can block all action favored by the majority.

That would mean the chaining of Ireland in perpetual subordination to the minority. The aim is, to crush out the spirit of Irish nationality so that the people will have no more talk about freedom or self-determination, whether under a republican form of government or any other.

Lloyd George and his henchmen know very well that this is not home rule; Sir Auckland Geddes knows it as well as anybody; yet he comes here with the lie on his lips, to represent to the American people that Ireland is offered a bona fide form of home rule. It is nothing of the sort. It is a measure designed to promote discord and prevent every form of national initiative which does not receive the sanction of the unionist minority in Ulster.

British rule in Ireland has been execrable in the past; and it is unquestionably so at present; but yet to the Irish nationalists continued subordination to the British parliament would be immeasurably preferable to the form of bondage that would result from subjection to the Ulster minority whose fanaticism towards the majority and zeal in behalf of British sway, has already been amply demonstrated.

Sir Auckland Geddes will find some difficulty in imposing this falsehood upon the American people who have already a very fair knowledge of the situation.

It is to be regretted, however, that the ambassador of England should leave himself open to the charge of hypocrisy by wilfully misrepresenting the facts. He asks that Ireland be left "to work out her own destiny." Yes, that is what Ireland wants if she be permitted to do so; but she can never do so while enshrouded to a band of avowed traitors to everything Irish.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The fortunate individuals who had purchased new clothing to wear Easter Sunday, but who were hampered in "showing off" because of the unpleasant weather that afternoon and evening made a "comeback" on Patriots day and had ample opportunity under the best possible circumstances to parade with their finery on exhibition. Rarely has April produced so pleasant a day as Monday and people here in Lowell who had not planned to devote themselves to home gardening or clearing land (all advantage of the weather to walk downtown, if a person could have taken the time to stand a few hours in Merrimack square during the early afternoon he probably would have had a most representative exhibition of spring styles from both the masculine and feminine viewpoints. The "show" was not confined to downtown, however, for so inviting was the weather that hundreds were attracted to the suburbs.

GET RID OF "SPRING FEVER" If you lack energy, if you are tired and languid, if you do not feel like exerting yourself—if you lack "pep"—like chances are that your bowels are sluggish. A Foley Cathartic Tablet is a good and wholesome physical stimulant. It breaks down gas, bloating, indigestion, sour stomach or other ailments that attend constipation and congestion. They cleanse the bowels and invigorate the system and favorably affect the liver.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

THE MAGICAL MUSHROOM GETS HELP.

"So this is the trouble!" exclaimed the Magical Mushroom when Nancy and Nick had stopped to see what was wrong with the fairies. "Jack Frost," he said, "you're a mean old fellow! Stop pinching those little creatures at once, and let them stick on their pussy-willow buds right away. If you don't, I shall tell the Fairy Queen."

But Jack Frost only laughed impudently. "Ha-ha!" he mocked, pinching one little fairy's toes hard. "What do seen his bright red shirt, and I've heard his shrill chirp. He thinks he can chase me, too, but he can't!" And Jack Frost pinched another little fairy's ears harder. "If spring, and the robin, and the pussy-willows once get a chance," he went on, "I'm done for, and I'm going to stay as long as I can." Well, the Magical Mushroom didn't know what to do then. He was magical, but only for some things, and Jack Frost wasn't one of them. Suddenly,

ALFRED EHRENRICH, PRESIDENT OF THE OCEAN LEATHER CO., AND PORPOISES CAUGHT FOR SHOE LEATHER.

I care for your Fairy Queen. She can't boss me! I'm a fairy myself, sort of. She may boss you, and she may boss those Green Shoes the twins wear, but she can't boss me. I'll do as I please! Spring's peeping over the top of that hill, there. I've seen her two or three times, but I'm not going to let her chase me if I can help it. That robin Nancy cleaned up when she was helping Rubadub in Scrub-Up Land, is waiting, too. I've however, he thought of something. He knew of one thing that Jack Frost was afraid of!

"Come, kiddies," he said to the twins, climbing into Nancy's pocket again. "Tell your Green Shoes to whisk us to the Fairy Queen's palace right away." And as they disappeared, Jack Frost, suspecting trouble, pinched another little fairy's nose hardest of all.

Nominated President of Cuba

HAVANA, April 20.—Senator Maza y Artoia was nominated for president of Cuba by the national assembly of the republican party today. The senator was elected to the upper house of congress as a conservative. He has opposed many of the most important measures advocated by the present administration, especially the Crowder electoral law.

SEEN AND HEARD

Let's make the dust fly this week and clean up things so well they will stay that way all summer.

Don't throw away any old pair of overalls you happen to have hanging around. Such garments are most fashionable in some places.

The time honored potato salad will now quietly disappear from the restaurant menu with "spuds" retailing for $1.25 per peck.

We have often wondered why Maine is the only other state to observe April 19 as a holiday. Have the Pine Tree states another "rude bridge that arched the flood?"

Will another Shakespeare-Bacon controversy arise in regard to whether it was Paul Revere or John Dawes who really carried the news to Concord farmers?

A little more of yesterday's weather and folks will feel inclined to look up time tables and a place to spend a "gorgeous" fortnight. By the way, have you asked for summer hotel rates yet?

Chickens Come Home to Roost "You must have plenty of nerve," said Col. Lookout. "The idea of stealing my chickens and then trying to sell them to me!"

"Why, cu'nd, I thought you'd pay a better price for chickens you'd raised yourself," returned Johnson. "You'd know what you're buying."

Her Turn to Ride "My," exclaimed Mr. Klumsay at the sophomore cotillion, "this floor's awful slippery. It's hard to keep on your feet."

"O," replied the fair partner, sarcastically, "then you were really trying to keep on your feet? I thought it was purely accidental!"

Years and Years Ago

Both stage ladies were after a job and the booking agent had but one to offer. "Sorry," he said. "It's all I have that's at all suited to either of you, and it will have to go to the one with the most experience."

"I give up," announced the younger of the two. "It's her part. She dates back to the time when eggs were so cheap the audiences threw 'em at her."

At His Own Funeral

It was bright and early when Simpkins entered the office and he felt very fit—till he found his employer standing waiting by his desk.

"Good morning, sir!" quoth Simpkins. In tones he hoped sounded blither than he felt.

"Morning," snapped the boss. "Where were you yesterday?"

"I—I had to attend the funeral of an aunt, sir," replied Simpkins sadly.

His employer glared coldly at him as he departed sternly.

"While you have been here, Simpkins, you have buried your parents, one grandfather and two grandmothers, four aunts and three uncles; you may as well know now that if you attend any funerals for the next year or so, it might as well be your own, for I won't have you back here."

CHARLESTON, C. C., April 21.—Miss Alice Thompson, though but a slip of a girl, is really a veteran when it comes to "breaking" and training horses. Many circus horses learned their three "r's"—racing, riding and rearing—in the "Thompson school."

FOR PRESIDENT GENERAL OF D. A. R.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Mrs. George Maynard Minor of Waterford, Conn., the only announced candidate for president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, made her first appearance today before the delegates of the society, in the annual session here, when she presented her report as chairman of the magazine committee. The presentation of reports of the resolutions committee was the basis of the day's discussion. Nominations for the national officers will be made late today or tonight and the election will be held Thursday.

GERMAN BUDGET FOR FISCAL YEAR

BERLIN, April 20.—Expenditures of forty billion marks to which may be added the railway and postal deficit of 12,000,000,000 are provided for in the budget for the fiscal year of 1920, which was laid before the budget committee of the national assembly by Dr. Wirth, minister of the treasury today. The ordinary budget showed expenditures amounting to 27,600,000,000 but revenues totaled 27,250,000,000, so there is a deficit of 350,000,000.

Dr. Wirth confessed himself at a loss to provide new sources of revenue by taxation, unless by the creation of state monopolies.

FRENCH TROOPS IN CONTROL OF AINTAB

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19 (By the Associated Press).—French troops, equipped with heavy artillery, entered Aintab, Asia Minor, on April 14, and have effectively relieved the situation there, according to a statement made public at the French embassy here. Messages sent from Aintab on April 12, asking for immediate aid for American workers there, were received in this city last week.

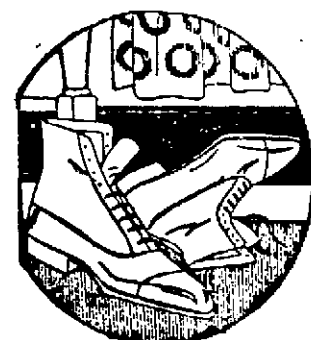

The French position in Cilicia is viewed as extremely difficult. Railroad communications between Mersina, where French forces landed last week, and Aintab, further east, were interrupted on April 11, it is stated by travelers arriving here from the southern Asia Minor coast. The railroad traverses level country without important bridges, and the Turks removed rails from the road, thus cutting off the French at Mersina from their chief base of supplies.

Northward, in the interior, the Turks have cut the railway by wrecking cars in an important tunnel between Adana and Diakishia. A French troop train was derailed in this region early in April and a detachment of French troops is isolated north of the break in the line. The railway from Adana to Aleppo has also been cut by the Turks.

The exodus of Mexican laborers from Mexico to the United States is increasing.

MINSTREL SHOW

And Dance by the Crescent Hill Associates

Everything is in readiness for the big minstrel show and dance to be staged at Associate hall tomorrow night by the Crescent Hill association, Inc. The main object of this popular association is to secure the necessary funds to erect a clubhouse and athletic field in Centralville that will be a credit to the city and state. At the present time it is the only section of the city that is without such facilities for the young men. The clubhouse will be erected in Eustis avenue, and will be easy of access not only to the residents of this fast growing district, but also for the people of Lowell proper, as two electric car lines will almost pass the door.

The entertainment part of the program will consist of 15 numbers and the following talent will take part: Mrs. Anastasia Tobin, Miss Beala Gendreau, Miss Emily Gaudette, Miss Alice Dion and Miss Frances O'Donnell; Frank Connor, Edward Donohue, William Collins, Joseph Dowling, John "Doc" Keefe, George "Rab" Rogers and James Manning. Mettrall and Walker will be seen in a song and dance sketch, and Jas. Kennedy in a whistling solo.

The big feature of the evening will be the first appearance of the Crescent Hill double male quartet. This quartet is made up exclusively of members of the association, and those who were privileged to hear them at Sunday's dress rehearsal declared that they were worth the price of admission alone.

The chorus is made up of 50 voices, male and female, and has been under the personal supervision of Charles D. Slattery. Leo Beloncourt is the musical director and Joseph Terry will act as interlocutor.

Immediately after the entertainment dancing will commence and will continue until 1 o'clock. Batchelder's

SWAMP-ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENTS

There is only one medicine that really stands out pre-eminent as a medicine for curable ailments of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root stands the highest for the reason that it has proven to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of distressing cases. Swamp-root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Lowell Sun.

Overseas orchestra of nine pieces will furnish the music. The tickets are 25 cents, tax paid.

Ricard-Dumais

A pretty wedding took place this morning when Eugene G. Ricard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ricard and a former member of Battery F, who saw service in France, and Miss Rose Dumais, daughter of Mrs. Mary Le-tourneau, of 125 White street, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed at 8 o'clock at a private nuptial mass celebrated in the chapel of St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. Guillaume Ouellette, O.M.I. The bride was attended by her brother, Mr. Theodore Dumais, while the groom's witness was his father, Mr. Frank Ricard. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, where a wedding breakfast was served by Caterer M. A. Lydon, followed by a brief reception. The happy couple left at noon on an extended honeymoon trip to New York and other places and upon their return they will make their home at 125 White street.

JOHNNY DOWNES STOPS MICHAELS

BOSTON, April 21.—Johnny Downes of South Boston fought like a champion at the Armory A. A. last night, making Nick Michaels of Syracuse quit in the fourth round.

Michaels claimed that he had been fouled, but before Phil Donahue gave him a short rest and then ordered him to continue. Michaels refused to do so and the referee declared Downes the winner.

All through the fight Downes did a lot of execution with a short right counter to the jaw, right hand uppercuts and rights and lefts to the body.

All through the fight Downes did a lot of execution with a short right counter to the jaw, right hand uppercuts and rights and lefts to the body.

Twice in the first round Downes sent Michaels to the mat with jaw punches and later on he staggered him.

Michaels, in the third round, sneaked over a right to Downes' jaw just as they were being separated by the referee.

It was in the fourth session that Michaels claimed the foul, backed by his seconds.

BRITISH CHAMPION IN RELAY CARNIVAL

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—Captain Ruhl of the Oxford-Cambridge relay team, who is here to compete in the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival next week, has entered in the quarter-mile hurdle event. He is the British intercollegiate quarter-mile champion and also a star hurdler. Ruhl will meet one of the fastest fields ever entered at the relays in this event. It includes Thompson of Dartmouth, Watt of Cornell, Kilby of Redlands, Hodde of Kansas, and Murray, junior national quarter-mile hurdle champion.

It is also announced that Jappe, who is on his way to this country to take the place of Tatham in case the latter is not able to run in the collegiate two-mile relay championship, probably will enter the high hurdle event. He also will meet a high class field.

In addition to the two-mile championship the British team is entered in the distance medley relay and will have a representative in the three-mile college championship race.

PROVIDENCE PENNANT WINNERS IN POLO

PROVIDENCE, April 21.—Providence won the American Polo League pennant here last night by defeating Fall River by a 2 to 1 score. The game was one of the roughest of the season, both being credited with three fouls, and Cusick, who lost a goal for Fall River and probably cost the team the game, was penalized for two fouls. The game was featured by Hart and Pierce of Fall River and Thompson of Providence. Thompson, going to first rush and replacing his Williams who was forced out by an injury. Evans went to second rush for Providence and Brown, stepped into centre place. From the outset of the game, it was evident that both teams were keyed to a high nervous tension. After seven minutes of play Thompson netted a goal and repeated in five minutes later with another. There was no score the second period and Fall River gained two in the third. One of these was subsequently lost on fouls. The attendance at the game was one of the largest and rooted strongly for Providence. The score:

PROVIDENCE	FALL RIVER
Williams, Thompson, Jr., Jr., Pierce, Evans, Brown, Cusick, 2, Hart, Lyons, Huffer, 2, C. Conley, 3, Cusick, 2, Lyons, 2, Referee, Devlin.	Williams, Thompson, Jr., Jr., Pierce, Evans, Brown, Cusick, 2, Hart, Lyons, Huffer, 2, C. Conley, 3, Cusick, 2, Lyons, 2, Referee, Devlin.
Won by, Caged by, Time	Providence, Thompson 7:15
Providence, Thompson 5:05	(Second Period.)

WHALES DOWN JIGGERS
 NEW BEDFORD, April 20.—Worcester, minus the services of Taylor, lost to New Bedford here last night. The score was 5 to 1. The score:

NEW BEDFORD	WORCESTER
Duggan, Jr., Jr., Welch, 2, Higgins, Duffness, 2, C. Mulligan, 2, Gardner, 2, C. Conley, 3, Cusick, 2, Lyons, 2, Referee, Devlin.	Duggan, Jr., Jr., Welch, 2, Higgins, Duffness, 2, C. Mulligan, 2, Gardner, 2, C. Conley, 3, Cusick, 2, Lyons, 2, Referee, Devlin.

"KID MCCOY" WEDS NINTH BRIDE
 LOS ANGELES, April 21.—Norman Selby, better known as "Kid McCoy," was married here last night to Miss Carmen Browder, a dancer, whose professional name is Carmen McCoy. The ceremony was performed at the Broadway Christian church, the Rev. Arthur Hillyer officiating.

The ex-king of the light heavyweights, gave his age as 41, and the bride confessed to 19 summers. This is the ninth time "McCoy" has entered the ring since he was 18. He is now marked when obtaining the license, he has the famous record of Nat Goodwin, "Beaten by several full lengths."

LONDOS HERE FRIDAY WILL MEET MANTELL
 Greek Jim Londos will wrestle Jack Mantell at Crescent rink Friday night under the auspices of the Lowell Marathon club, recently organized, with headquarters at Merrimack and Hanover streets. Mantell comes from Chicago and weighs 215 pounds. Londos will be at a disadvantage of 35 pounds, but he believes he can beat the grappling giant from the west. Londos is now wrestling in his best form, as indicated by his wonderful showing against Stecher in Boston last night. The Lowell Marathon club is composed of Greeks. It is an organization devoted to the social side, as well as athletics, and it already numbers more than 300 members.

POLO NOTES
 Good bye, and good luck.
 Lowell fans saw good polo all season.
 Ted Lewis and Al Davies turned in a wonderful exhibition of shooting in the get-away.
 Capt. Hardy of Salem threw away his sticks after the game.
 Morrison was not with Salem last night, Carigan filled in at half back. Lowell players were given a great send-off. They deserved it.

YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MAN DOWN

BY FRED TURBYVILLE
 A fellow who has enough brains to invent all the little tricks that Allan Sorothorn is famous for, is smart enough to produce other goods. There are two kinds of pitchers: The pitcher with brains and a good arm. The pitcher with a good arm. Sorothorn is one of the first class. They declare he was a winning pitcher. He was because he had so much trick stuff that none of his competitors were right. Well, granting his critics are right, you must admit he has brains. And there is none but that will wear him a good arm. They've taken all his tricks away from him, but he'll come back with something else. He is young and his arm is as good as it ever was. His brain is better. So just watch for Allan Sorothorn. He'll show you a new trick in 1920 with another good record. Cleveland opened viciously against Sorothorn in the getway game. They hit him hard and fast. The Indians were murdered in the first inning. A huge home crowd that had been taking pennant all winter. And the Indians look like a team that can hammer most any pitcher this year. And a lot of their hits on opening day got away from some fellow pitcher. They had the break. But on the other hand, Sorothorn seemed bothered a bit by the restrictions on the pitchers imposed by the winter's play. He looked awkward as he held the ball away from his glove or shirt. He used to be rubbing it against himself all the time. But on opening day he carefully took off his glove and held the ball in his hands. He didn't want to be canned from the game. That was all unusual to him and probably it made him feel awkward. He says his arm is not quite right and that he will be as good as over when he gets started once. "Manager Burke had permission from Ban Johnson to substitute me as a relief pitcher in place of Cusick. I don't use the splitter much. It's only a bluff, same as a lot of other stuff I've pretended to use."

CARNIVAL OF BOXING AND WRESTLING

The Acre Boys, a recently formed but already popular organization, staged a carnival of boxing and wrestling in Associate hall last night to defray the cost of an automobile for the Navarlan brothers of St. Patrick's school. There was a large attendance and substantial proceeds were realized. The program included 13 boxing bouts, 12 of them of four rounds each and the other a six-round affair, and a wrestling match between Bob Johnson of Billerica and Jack Deas of Concord. At the conclusion of the bout Johnson said he would meet Americans at any time and in any place.

The boxing bouts introduced the following talent: Phiney Boyle vs. Young Norney, Bobbie Desmond vs. Hooker, Young Conkey vs. Young Flanagan, Dutch Regan vs. Young Ford, both of Boston; Buddy Lane and Young Fahey, Joe Welch and Young Allen of Boston, Young Danas and Young Green, Tommy Doyle and Geo. Stone, Louis Gally and Jimmy Martin of Boston, Jimmy Farrin and Young Mulligan, Martin Flaherty, Jr. and Timmy Tully, Billy Murphy and Bobby Moran and "Nixie" Keyrell and Tom Ring of Boston.

Owing to their exhibition nature, all bouts were declared a draw. With few exceptions, all of them brought out plenty of action and good ringmanship. Martin Flaherty was referee, Dan Brennan announcer and Mr. Pettier, timer.

John Quinn, accompanied by William Quinn, entertained with solos during the evening. The committee in charge of the affair was: John P. Lane, chairman; Cornelius Lynch and Michael Kelly.

AMATEUR BASEBALL
 The Eagles opened their 1920 season on Patriots day with a victory over the Willie Street Stars. The game was featured by the batting of O'Garra and the air-tight pitching of Doc Harrington, who in the course of the battle hit nine home runs and twenty runs.

The Hudson Juniors are anxious to play the Junior Red Sox or any other 10 or 11-year-old team in the city. Arrange games through this paper.

The Newsboys ball team announces that after a hard battle on the Lincoln playground the victors were vanquished, 16 to 12. There were many injuries. The game was featured by the batting of O'Garra and the air-tight pitching of Doc Harrington, who in the course of the battle hit nine home runs and twenty runs.

The West Ends are anxious to play the South Ends, K. of C. or American Legion next Saturday. Jim Cannon, manager, will arrange at the playground and School street tonight at 7:15 o'clock.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT
 Several good scores were put up in the big handicap bowling tournament at the Crescent rink yesterday and the interest in the various matches indicates that it will be a big success. The handicapping committee, headed by Walter Jewett, secretary of the City League, gives every bowler or would-be bowler a chance to win prizes. The tournament is open to all, the more the merrier, and already several hundred have entered. At any time of the day, the only requirement being that they register before game time.

LOCAL ATTORNEY SUES FOR SERVICES

An action of contract brought by Edward J. Tierney, local attorney, against Felix Dobrolowski, whereby the plaintiff seeks to recover $500 for professional services rendered, went to trial in the superior civil court today. The defendant is one of two brothers arrested last fall on a charge of radicalism. Mr. Tierney was represented by James J. Kerwin, while the defendant appeared in his own behalf. The case was given to the jury just before the noon recess at 12 o'clock.

The next case on the list is an action of contract brought by Charles G. Vian of this city, against the Jackson and Newton Co. The plaintiff seeks to recover for damages alleged to have resulted from a delay in delivery of plate glass for use in a store and garage built by him. Mr. Vian is represented by Quia, Howard and Rogers, with James R. Plannagan of Boston for the defendant.

NEW WAGE SCHEDULE ON RAILROAD

The regulations agreed upon in Washington on Jan. 13, 1920, between the United States railroad administration represented by Walker D. Hines, the director general, and the national committee of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, regarding the payment of wages, will be made effective during this week at the local depot. The computation of wages, according to those rates stipulated in that agreement, will be made retroactive to Jan. 1, 1920, when it was supposed to have become effective.

The rules governing the hours of service and working conditions of the employees on railroads which were then under federal operation, state that time in excess of eight hours, exclusive of meal period, on any day, is to be considered overtime and paid on the actual minute basis. For those employees who are rated hourly, overtime will be computed at the rate of time and one-half.

For daily rated employees, when the full number of hours per week are worked, overtime will be computed at the rate of time and one-half.

Those in the pay-roll department at the local depot are busy computing the back pay of local employees.

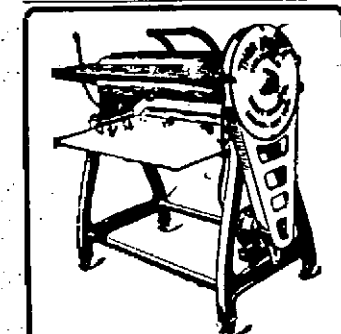

The computation will be made according to the above regulations and will give back pay to clerks, other office and station employees, such as office boys, messengers, chore boys, train announcers, gatemen, checkers, baggage and parcel room employees, train and engine crew callers, operators of office or station equipment devices, telephone switch board operators, elevator operators, office station and warehouse watchmen, and janitors and laborers employed in and about stations, storehouses and warehouses.

KNIGHTS OF MALTA

Eight more applications for membership were received at last evening's meeting of Lowell Commandery, Knights of Malta, and one former member was reinstated. The class of 33 is now about half formed, and it is confidently expected that it shall be completed at the next meeting. An important change in the by-laws is to be acted upon at that time, and an entertainment is to be given under the direction of Past Commander George P. B. Bowring and Commander George A. Reap, at the conclusion of the business. A past commanders' night is set for Tuesday, May 18th.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Busy evenings are now the rule at meetings of Chevalier-Middlesex lodge, Knights of Pythias. Three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the rank of page at the last meeting and five more applications for membership were received. The rank of esquire is to be conferred upon three pages at the next meeting.

Desdemona, Texas, Outlaws, Make Mistake Of Arousing American Legion's Ire

BY JESSE F. GELDERS
N.E.A. Staff Correspondent.

DESDEMONA, Texas, April 21.—The click of poker chips and the sharp command, "Hands up!"

American Legion men pitted against the men and women who took their illicit share of oil boom prosperity—under glaring lights to the tune of mechanical pianos—

The dawn of victory for home-loving citizens, after a bitter fight in which death threats have flown thick and fast—

This is the story of a town's regeneration, after the breath of the bad old west threatened to set back moral progress for a generation or more.

With its rush of wealth, gushing up from subterranean reservoirs, evil days fell on the law-abiding community of Desdemona. Two hundred and fifty of the original 300 townspeople left, declaring that "it was no place to bring up a family."

And, while no one disagreed with them, no one attempted to better conditions until a Purify league was formed, to clean out the crooks.

"Typical Tenderfoot"

Back of the gang was a suave, well-groomed person who would have been hailed as a typical tenderfoot in the days when the west was wild. He was graduated from an aristocratic eastern college; then he came to Desdemona and began the organization of a vice machine.

J. S. Sanders, secretary of the league, said: "Lots of us were even sorry that oil had been found. It brought money, but it cost us something money couldn't buy."

The league paid two deputy sheriffs special salaries of $125 a month.

But open gambling continued, painted women swarmed the main street by day and night, moonshine whiskey flowed in without restraint.

Governor Hobby was appealed to. Sanders wrote the governor: "There are seven gambling houses running wide open under the direct protection of the sheriff's and the county attorney's departments."

"Every officer in this county, including the justice of the peace, is believed to be getting his share of the take-off. If any one tries to get one of these houses raided, while the warrants are being sworn out one of the local officers will notify the houses to close. If you will go into one of these houses for a few hours at night, you will see from one to three local officers."

"More than 100 immoral women

are paying for protection. Desdemona is in disgrace today."

"I taught school in Texas nine years. I have a wife, three little girls and two boys. I have one of the best homes in Desdemona. Have I any protection under the law?"

The pastor of the Baptist church and the Purify league chairman were pelted with beer bottles as they shadowed a dive.

Peacock Forced Out

A grand jury was called. Deputy Sheriff Peacock was ordered dismissed and George "Big" Bedford, another deputy, resigned.

But the Purify league was still on the defensive. Peacock circulated a petition and had himself appointed constable. Bedford was reappointed deputy sheriff and the opponents of the league were more strongly entrenched than ever.

Peacock charged that Sanders and Captain Horace Soule had hired the president of the league to kill him. "Peacock challenged any representative of the league to a gun duel," said Soule, an attorney.

The next turn of the battle came with the incorporation of the town of Desdemona and its first election.

Purify League Beaten

The Purify league placed a ticket in the field, which was unopposed until two days before election, when another set of candidates was announced, with Peacock seeking the office of town marshal.

Then came the rangers. They rode into town under the governor's orders and burned six wagonloads of gambling equipment on election day!

But the Purify league was beaten. Many voters appeared with affidavits permitting them to vote. It is charged that these were issued in wholesale lot, in blanket form.

The gang was in power. The women, who had left town in fear of the Purify league's success, flocked back with reinforcements.

New gambling outfits were hastily erected and the town again was wide open.

Once more the rival gambling joints competed for trade. Cards were distributed inviting patrons to "Monte Carlo" and similar resorts.

Then it was that the gang, grown arrogant, overstepped itself and kindled the wrath of the legion men, which meant the finish of free-and-easy vice in Desdemona.

Peacock On Warnings

Bob Peacock, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, invaded the headquarters of the legion. Peacock covered three men with a gun while the women tore down posters and clippings from the walls. They destroyed a banquet announcement bearing the portrait of Captain A. F. Bates, post commander, whom all the service men knew as "Pa."

As a member of the Purify league, Bates had attacked corruption.

The state legion headquarters was notified. Where the torn poster clung to the wall, newspaper clippings describing the affair were pasted, and a new poster displayed. Peacock, confident of his pull and power, was in a rage. Again he tore down the poster.

Then the state officials were aroused. Plainclothes men arrived and the painted women began to steal away. Gambling halls are dark in Desdemona; the law has arrived; the Purify league, coming into power, has wiped out organized crookedness.

PASSION FLOWER WONDERFUL PLANT

A perfect specimen of the passion flower is now on exhibition at the Old Lowell National bank, a product of the hot-house of Peter T. Donohoe in High street. The passion flower is extremely rare in this part of the country at any season of the year and especially at this time. Mr. Donohoe was given the seed of the flower by a friend and by careful cultivation has grown a most beautiful specimen.

The passion flower has two distinct sets of petals, one being of a type closely resembling those of the rose and another of vivid purple standing upright. The centre of the flower is in the form of a cross and the styles resemble nails.

The flower received its name from early Spanish settlers in this country who saw in it a representation of Christ's passion. One of the features of the flower is that it remains open only 24 hours and then closes up and dies.

FIRST ANNUAL DANCE

Many Lowell clubs were represented at the first annual dance staged by the R-U-With-Us Girls in Lincoln hall on Monday evening. One of the features was the decoration of the hall which was planned in a great degree by the officers of the club. The color scheme was red, white and blue and just before intermission, three score happy dancers were showered with confetti and red, white and blue streamers. Among those who helped to make the dance so successful were Lawrence Cornell and John Gallagher. The officers of the dance were: Bessie Gray, general manager; Florence Buckley, assistant manager; Delia Maroney and Ruth O'Grady floor directors; Mary Terris, Katie Terris, Vera and Sadie Cornell, Alice Hosby and Hazel Cornell, aids.

RAILROAD STRIKE DELAYS SEWER WORK

Delay in freight shipments, due presumably to the recent railroad strike, is interfering seriously with the work of the local street and sewer department, according to Commissioner Dennis A. Murphy.

A number of sewer jobs have been held up owing to the non-arrival of sewer pipe ordered some time ago and paving work is being impeded because of the absence of cement. In addition, the two new street sweeping machines ordered by the commissioner a month or more ago, which were to have been delivered here on April 15, have not yet put in an appearance.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends, relatives and neighbors for the kind acts during the illness and death of our beloved mother; also those who sent spiritual bouquets and floral offerings and helped to lighten our burden of sorrow.
